

MESSAGE 20 FEBRUARY.7.2016

I look for you day and night, My eyes do not move away from you¹, My people, love of My entrails. How long have I waited this moment! Moment of grace and redemption for a lost world that does not know My voice, that does not know My Mandates.

Oh Israel, if you knew the glory that has prepared² for you, your God and your Lord!. But you are dazed and confused and do not find the path in your life. You separated from Me, and went away after other gods, gods who have been your ruin³ and want to lose you forever; but today I come to you and call you and beg you your return⁴, to the Only real God, three times Holy⁵, who died for you on the Cross⁶, in a death painful and full of disgrace before the uproar of a people that did not know their God but he had eaten with Him, at His side day and night and had been healed and freed by His loving hands, full of tenderness⁷.

Oh Israel, you do not know what you did⁸! But you will know it when you see Me descending from the sky with Glory and Majesty⁹. You did not announce My Arrival to this world as you should had done since it was your mission: To announce that of you, My people, the Redeemer of the world went out. But blind eyes, empty and light understandings, that judge the invisible and do not happen to see what is before their eyes and shines with the Light of the Holy Spirit. You'll be asked accounts for not having announced to the world that from you, My people, came the Messiah¹⁰, the Anointed¹¹ by God for the salvation of a lost world that does not know the Love of God.

Oh Israel, when you should see your Jesus come with Glory and Majesty among the clouds of the sky you will recognize the Son of the carpenter, Mary's Son, the one to chose you from among all the peoples to be His people¹²!

Oh children of My soul, you do not recognize God in your lives because you are full of sin and sin makes you blind¹³ and leaves you in the most terrible darkness. If you want to see, you will have to come to the Source of My Grace, and your eyes will be opened to the Light of Grace, to the Truth of a God who died on the Cross for you, son, for your love and returns to liberate you of the slavery of sin, of terror that satan has imposed in this world¹⁴. Let yourself be helped, let yourself be guided by those who have already opened their eyes to My Light and My Truth. Do not resist since one day you will be ask for accounts¹⁵ of having wasted the grace that today I put before you. Son reflect on your life, on your entire life; asks for forgiveness for all the evil you have done, with tears in your eyes; kneel down in a repentance that move the mountains, that makes the stones and the seas cry, because a child of God asks, begs for the forgiveness of all his sins to who is waiting day and night to welcome his words of repentance and his tears to give him a hug at the time of absolution and to cover him with the white¹⁶ tunic of the elected ones.

Son, I speak to you today: Put in order your life, wash your sins in the baptismal water of the Sacrament of Reconciliation and prepare to wait for My Arrival, because I return and I would not be late¹⁷. Yes son, so much time waiting this moment for all those who have preceded you and now it comes, to redeem this world of evil and of sin, to console the eyes that do not stop weeping, encourage the depressed, wiping your tears, to carry on My shoulders all those that can not even walk. I carry you; do not worry of your weariness. I take you up on My shoulders¹⁸, take care of you and lighten your load¹⁹ because I love you dear children of My Passion! I love you and I want to be your friend, your brother and your God, make Me a place in your heart, better yet, give Me your heart entirely and I will give you Mine. Oh children if you knew how much I love you!

The sky is dressed in gala for the culminating moment of the history: the Redemption of this outdated world. But be alert because the devil has resolved to give a merciless war to My holy people, to My children. It has already started, you are already hearing of it in the news; how evil is advancing, how the world hates you for My cause²⁰. But do not get scare children of My soul that I, Jesus, am with you. I will never leave you out of My hand²¹.

It is late and you must prepare well for all that is to come, black and dark days. Fruits of evil and sin will fall from the trees of this lost world, because that is what you sow when you were living in sin; it is the sowing of evil. And this rotten and smelly fruit reins and it has come into your houses. You exhibit it and eat it in your holidays of sin and of wickedness. Throw out of your lives²², your homes, all the fruits of evil of satan! Leave your lives, your houses, your relations, free of these pestilences and rotten fruits. Throw them out of you. Must clean up, wipe out, pull and discard all the evil that is in you and that surround you in your life. Because, children: what good does it do to you if you confess without throwing or extirpate all the evil that makes you fall in it again? No children neither have mercy nor hesitate to toss and throw away everything that is of satan. Be strong and brave and do not hesitate to throw, to reject, of your lives, everything that will make you fall again. Do not leave near you what makes you fall, children. Throw far away from your lives the temptation²³. You are not strong enough that you can deal with it.

Give thanks to God for these words that are written here because they are for your salvation and one day you will be glad without measure to have listened to them and to have put them into practice. There is no more time for hesitation, respond to these words with firmness in your life.

Let it not matter to you what they will say perhaps a mortal man, like you, and sinner, is more than your God? Perhaps on the day of judgment this man, mortal and sinful, for whom you did not pay attention to Me will come in your help?

Perhaps this man, sinner and mortal like you, for whom you neither followed My steps nor obeyed My Orders, will give you eternal life? No children, do not make each other gods. There is only one God, a Savior, and He is on the Cross for you, to give you eternal salvation.

Children, learn in your hearts My words, allow them to resound day and night and I will move you to everything that remains for you to do to prepare for My Coming.

Leave everything useless, everything vain, all which leads you to sin, leave everything that can lead you away from Me. There is no longer time for hesitation but firmness, it is urgent since the time of rigor is approaching. Be firm, sharp, determined to push aside the evil²⁴ that surrounds you in your life.

Oh My people, love of My entrails, there is no time, My warnings are finishing because the time of rigor begins; the time of the thunderstorm, the lightning and the thunder the time of weeping and orphanhood; the time of desolation.

Look at Me on the Cross, for you, for your love, and I will give you the strength to uproot the evil out of your lives.

These words are written in the book of life because they are for the salvation of My dear children of the soul, for My children.

I come to reign, to establish in this world the Kingdom of My Father who is in heaven. The time of the Spirit, the time in which it will flourish as an orchard²⁵ that was withered. Every tongue shall praise and sing, it will glorify his God because I do all things new²⁶. The child will laugh playing with the asp²⁷ and there will be neither crying nor pain because I recreated everything, I make everything new. A new heaven and a new earth²⁸.

I, Jesus, speak to you by my dear girl of the soul; listen to her because her voice is Mine. Pray for her and her spiritual director, because the world does not know Me, it has closed its ear to the voice of God..

Do not pay attention to those who speak and are not My words, the world listens to those with passion, but to those who speak on My behalf they curse and kill them.

The world is in the hands of the devil, and its works belong to him. But he, that is Mine, follows My Words, My Commandments and lives in the Light, recognizes the words that do not come from Me because he is assisted by a new light. Not all have the light of My Holy Spirit and are prey of the error and of the deception. Have compassion for them and pray. Pray for the cowards²⁹ of heart, who appreciate more their life, those who do not take risks for Me, who live safe, but do not have a heart brave and opened to My Holy Spirit. Pray for them, since the judgment will be hard for them because they do not follow their Master who did not have a place to recline His head³⁰ and was persecuted, mistreated, insulted and abandoned³¹.

Do not be cowards of heart and follow Me, children, by the road of the will of My Father to save all your brothers.

The world does not know Me because it has closed its ears to the voice of God, does not want to listen to Me. Children, take My words to all.

Go to the source of forgiveness and Grace because the day you will stand in front of Me is nearing.

Do not doubt these words, for the day will come when your heart will yearn for them and you will not find them.

Children, live this time of grace and mercy that God has granted to you, with intensity and courage.

It is the hour of God. Turn your eyes to Me. There is no longer time, time is running out.

One God, one faith³².

Read the Scriptures in the silence of your room. Pray, Do not separate from one another since you help yourselves with your example. Live close to your priests, who follow My Words and do not depart from them because, children days of confusion are coming.

Be faithful in following My Commandments³³.

When you see in the sky what you have never seen before³⁴, prepare yourselves because the moment of the liberation comes to a world headed toward perdition, due to sin and the evil of the one that always wanted to put an end to the work of My Father, but was defeated on My Cross³⁵ and his head crushed³⁶ by the Love of a Mother that is in the Glory of Her Son, Jesus. She is crowned with flowers and stars and lives beside the Father, her Son and the Holy Spirit, for centuries of centuries. “Mary, Mother of God, pray for your children y takes us to Jesus” Let this be in your hearts every day and every night.
