

MESSAGE 21 7.MARCH.2016

Israel, your Lord and your God is here.

How long have I waited to be before you as I did in those ancient times, open your eyes to the light¹.

The light of your eyes will disappear because you chose the blindness. Oh! No, there will be no salvation outside of Me². The hills will speak and the mountains will romp before the Holy one of Israel, because I was before you, I came to you and you despised the Love of a God who only wanted your Salvation. You despised the Holy of Holies because you prostituted³ like the beasts of the field, since in you there was no light. Throw out you the spirit of unbelief, the spirit of fornication, the spirit that dwells in hearts that do not distinguish good from evil, because they do not follow My ways; they have been under his instincts day and night and they can not see the right from the left⁴! You are dulled by the things of this world and do not leave them.

O Israel, o My people! Days of confusion and evil will fall on this old world and darkness will cover you because you chose darkness and not the light, evil but not good. Women in childbirth will cry and those who are breastfeeding⁵ their children since there will be no more light or calm in their lives. You let yourselves be duped by charlatans that offer you an easy life and full of low instincts, but you have moved away from the light of the Only Real God, that now speaks to you son, but you despise My Words, you have no pity on those who follow My ways, you make fun of them, there is no peace in your hearts, you only go in search of the wine that makes you drunk, but not the one that gives Life⁶.

Oh! Darkness will cling to this world and out of the sky a rain of fire⁷ will fall that will purify with rigor all evil, all perversity that the enemy of your salvation has spilled.

Oh children! How far you are to live as it is required in these moments and you are so calm although you see the rain and the hail you do not pay attention and that is why your Saviour will not have pity on anyone that turns his back on Him, who does not want to know anything about Him⁸, because children I have already come to bring everything that you were longing for your salvation⁹, but I am despised, you make fun of everything holy and you do not want to pay attention to My warnings.

Why, Israel? Why did you go after other gods¹⁰? Gods who have not filled your heart and have emptied your life. But the Saint of saints is before you and you look the other way, you do not pay attention to My warnings and laugh and joke of My prophets.

Why so much evil in your heart¹¹ perverted and stubborn?

Why so much pain in your life? By following your own ways and not those of your Master¹².

I assure you that the fruit of the vine have their days numbered and you will not drink again from it as you can do now. Because, it is enough! of so much evil and hypocrisy in your lives in your relationships. There is already no time for any more contemplation with he who does not want to know anything about Me. My Father is disgusted by so much nastiness as evil is pouring in this world, created for the love and the happiness of His children and you, children, you continue to follow the insinuations and perversions of the enemy of your souls.

No! The time of rigor begins and you will know what justice, peace and Mercy is, since you know nothing of the Truth that will reign in this world, you only see small rays of light but you are still very far away from living and feeling in your lives and those of your brothers the Coming of the Lord¹³.

Nothing will fall down from Heaven that has not been intended for your Salvation. All will be in order to the Redemption of the world.

There is no time for more hesitation. My messages are paralyzed by the evil of this world that persecutes them with a rage that you do not know, it does not want that My Words of Salvation and Love reach My children, he is hindering them from My own Church and has no pity with those who want to live through them, hindering again and again, My children, their paths in the follow-up plan that I have marked for them so they can prepared for all that is coming. I assure you that those that prevent My words of Salvation will be judge with rigor, because time is pressing.

The time of the calamity is at your doors and you still promise it to yourselves very happy because it still has not called yours, but it is already close and there will not be time to prepare yourselves, if you do not start now.

I protect you, dear children, from the evil and from the infernal snake, but you will have to shelter yourselves from this world that does not know My Love, that does not know My voice, because it has preferred the life of darkness.

I speak to you through My instrument. Instrument that I have chosen to convey to you My voice, so that you can be warned of the situation that prevails, and will reign in this world already doomed to the end of its days.

How long will I have to say to you that there is already no time! But you laugh at My words, do not pay attention of My warnings, you keep on living as if nothing will happen.

There is no place for Me in your lives. The place that your God¹⁴ deserves is occupied, occupied by so many things and persons who do not take you to Me, which remove you from Me. Throw sin out of your lives and of being empty of Grace! Out with all that is not from Me! Thus, how will you be able to advance and fight against sin in this Year of Mercy?

Do not spend My Patience with so many cheap costume jewelry in your life. Do not waste the time that you have left. Because a mighty God lower Himself to you to bring you these words of Salvation and you mock, you ignore them and do not believe them. What do you need to believe in My words? Did I not say to you that the Holy Spirit would not stop pouring My charismas¹⁵ on this world, in order for the Salvation of souls? Then, why you don't believe it when He is in front of you?

Oh children! Hell waits with the doors open for My children and, what can your God do that He has not already done? I have given you everything: My Life¹⁶, I have remained with you¹⁷ but this evil world does not want to know anything about its God. But you will tremble at what is coming upon you and then you will look to heaven, begging for My help and My favor. May God protect you that day because the road you lead is a path of selfishness and wickedness, and that, children, will be counted on to you the day you implore My Mercy. Because I was before you and you did not believe Me, I sent My prophets to the doors of your home and you closed them. What else can I do?

Everything is in the Sacred Scripture¹⁸ but you do not read it, do not understand it, because you are intoxicated of drunkenness of this world and you do not leave room for silence, for meditation, for reflection, and you do not find the light that I send you through My Sacraments, because you do not receive them with faith, but with routine and apathy.

A soul that looks for Me with a sincere heart and comes to the source of My Grace is a treasure difficult to find for your God, but I continue looking for you incessantly, I do not get tired of being at your door and to call you. One day you will know how much I suffered for you, for your love and will recognize the Love that was at your door¹⁹ that called and waited for you, that was under the inclemency of the weather for you, for your love, for your salvation.

The time of rigour is already near you; it has already come to other brothers in their lives. Everything ends, everything is finished.

Let yourself be seduced by the love of God that calls your heart²⁰.

Allow yourself to be loved by Him, who day and night cries out to the Father for your salvation²¹.

Let yourself be taught by the Only Teacher²², the Only guide that you should open your ears to.

Oh children, My warnings are ending. Days of confusion will come to this world and you will not know which way to choose to scape the terror of the devil who will seize the most sacred throne on Earth²³.

I warn you, I call you to put your soul in peace with Me, with your Maker, your Savior, your Sanctifier. Do it son, and you will not regret it. Afterwards do not weep, lost and aimlessly looking for a minister of the Lord so that, in My Name, forgive your sins. You will not have them as close as you have them now. They will suffer the ruthless persecution of My enemy, who in heaven stood before Me despising My Holiness, he will persecute you to take your life, to make you disappear from the world, from the face of the Earth. But I shelter My holy priests in My Heart and protect them with My Glory from the infernal enemy. Do not be afraid, holy ones of God, for your reward will be great one day in heaven.

Open the doors wide to the Sun that comes to govern this Earth²⁴, with a justice that you do not know, but it will be the joy that wipe away your tears²⁵.

Do not be afraid, those of you that read these words, which I bring to you through My dear child of the soul, for I protect you with the grace that you carry.

Strongly embrace the Cross²⁶.

Do not separate yourselves from My holy priests, take care of them with your prayer and do not turn away from them, for they will carry My Grace in the moments in which you will not be able to find it by the ruthless persecution, which will cling to the whole earth.

Pay attention to Me, children, and you will rejoice one day. There is no more time for many more warnings, but be grateful to those who follow My ways, helping the King of heaven in order for the Salvation of this world.

I would not be late, I'm at the door prepare your hearts since there I will meet you and I will give you My Justice and My Mercy. But it will be a day of rigor as you have not known, since the Truth will make its way in the middle of the most hostile darkness, and your life will pass before you with the mercy of your God, but also with Justice and Rigor.

Put yourselves on the way, there is already no time, hold on strongly to the hand of My Mother. She waits for you every day in your heart to accompany you to My hand. Pay attention, children, and one day you will be glad to listen to My words.

There is no time. Start walking in order to My Salvation. Abandoned the dying things and think in the eternal ones²⁷. One day I said to you that I would come for you, it has arrived²⁸. It is here.

Be careful with those who curse My Holy Name. Stay away from them, because the spirit of Satan lives in them and are looking for your doom.

Stay away from those who call you to follow paths contrary to My Commandments, because they are placed by satan for the destruction of your souls. Flee from them.

I warn you, children, open your lives and your heart²⁹ to God's voice. I, Jesus, speak to you and I am with you up to the end of the world. Because, children, My Heart is thirsty for your love. Console your God and Savior. Love the Redeemer. Give Me to drink because I am thirsty for your love.

Farewell, children, I wait for you in My Sacraments, that I bring to you through My holy priests.

I am with you; I do not distance myself from you; do not distance yourself from Me. Days of rigor and desolation will come to your lives, but I, Jesus, I am with you, and I will defend you for My Glory. Because you are Mine, children, you are Mine; I bought you at the cost of My Blood³⁰. You are valuable to Me, as a small newborn child is valuable to his dear mother³¹, Nothing or nobody can separate her from her beloved child. Trust in Me, nothing or nobody will snatch you from My hand, if you do not separate from My Grace, My Commandments, from the Law of Love. Amen. Amen.

I return. Be prepared with the burning lamps³², awake. Guard your soul of the infernal enemy; do not let him enter into your life. Protect the treasure of the Grace, which you carry within you³³.

Darkness and light³⁴ are close. Understand, children understand and read the Sacred Scriptures.
