

MESSAGE 29 NOVEMBER.7.2016

Do not be afraid Israel, I am with you. I do not depart from you, day or night. I know you and I know of your eagerness for salvation.

Listen¹ Israel, listen to your Lord; listen My people, Who should give you the salvation of your souls, your life. Hold My hand and do not let go anymore, do not let go of the hand of your Salvation; because there is no Salvation outside of Me².

Days will come, O Israel, oracle of the Lord, in which you will desire to find Me as you now have Me, but I will not be. The Prince of this world will close all the churches and all that is holy because he looks for his glory.

Let nothing trouble you, My people, I will be with you in your heart and in all souls living in My Grace. The holy angels will come down from heaven and comfort you in the greatest suffering that the Earth has experienced. Oh My people, My Holy Heart does not rest until you are with Me in the Kingdom of My Father. Dangers stalk you day and night but you live calm and confident and you are not on guard. No My people, your eyes must be vigilant, for the roaring³ lion seeks someone to devour and your soul must be protected by My Sacraments. Do not cast on deaf ears what I repeatedly say to you for your Salvation.

My coming is imminent, is close in the days and hours; but you, My people, you are just looking for the knowledge of things which only correspond to God. Prepare your soul, prepare your heart, prepare your life because I come, My people, I come to you. Man seeks wisdom of this world and to discover the secrets that have never been revealed, but does not pursue Salvation in the same way.

It is not too late to start but, people of my entrails, the culminating moment approaches and you are not prepared. A solar storm, an earthquake, you will see signs in the sky and all sorts of wonders in the heavens and the Earth. Everything is of your God; Heaven and Earth, and everything will announce you that I come. I come to you, My people, to wash away your stains of sin that you have committed in this Lost World and without direction. I come to you to give you the Salvation. The Punishment is imminent, because the Salvation comes, and there is no Salvation without Justice and without the last opportunity of the Salvation: the pain and the suffering. This will be the last opportunity: A Punishment allowed by your God for the Salvation of your souls.

Without the pain and suffering you promise happiness to yourselves and you forget your Creator, your Redeemer, and your Sanctifier. You forget the Cross, and you get lost in sin and all the evils of the world, you believe in gods and you do not need the tenderness and the Merciful hand of your God. That is why I come as Judge of Justice and as Love of Mercy⁴; it cannot be only love of mercy, as there is no justice without mercy, and there is no mercy without justice.

A Righteous Judge comes for His people redeemed with His Blood⁵, redeemed with His Love, redeemed with the Sorrow and Suffering of My Cross⁶.

Where is your cross? Where are your tears⁷ that take you to implore the Love of My Holy Heart? In the days to come, there will be bells of Glory and cries and tears of sorrow and justice, because this world has departed from the Cross⁸ and they call it punishment, but not redemption, but cruel and senseless punishment, and therefore little by little, they are moving away from the sense of pain and suffering. In the concentration camps, wars and earthquakes souls were saved that otherwise would not have done so. The Lord allows it for the good of souls, as the Eternal Father allowed My Cross⁹ for your Salvation.

Since the proud and arrogant¹⁰ angel challenged the God of the Universe and he departed from him with his evil and wicked angels, the world has a condemnation to follow and worship him, and that condemnation will have a just Judgment and Punishment.

Oh My people, your Lord reveals to you the events to come¹¹. You, son, meditate in the silence of your life, look for moments of silence and listen to your Lord who speaks to you, who shouts: Get to work on the road of your salvation.

The Cross is the bridge between Heaven and Earth. You must pass this bridge to go to Heaven.

Let yourself be nailed to the Cross of your Redeemer, in it is My Blood that will wash away all your crimes.

Be constant in prayer and you will see My Words in the Light of the Holy Spirit and you will understand My Words and My cry of Salvation that I make to your heart. Be faithful in approaching confession, a soul in the state of Grace understands with more wisdom My Words and the meaning of My Cross of pain and suffering.

O my people, how many souls in his cross have been saved where outside of it would have been lost and would have been easy prey of the claws of satan and would have ended in hell. Love your cross because there will come days of pain and purification. Look up to heaven and think that the pain ends, but the Eternal Life¹² will be forever. It is worth suffering to achieve such a great gift. Courage and go forward in your fight against the powers of this world¹³ that are seeking only your doom.

Speak to Me, children, in your prayer, in your silence and listen to My voice in your heart that tells you: I love you, I love you; come with Me to Paradise, let My Salvation come into your life as the greatest Treasure. Do not despise this moment of Salvation in your life.

Take your cross every day and prepare to suffer, suffer to enjoy Heaven of Eternal Life. My ways¹⁴ are your ways¹⁵, I said to you, yes children, look at My way, and meditate on it, because it is also yours. Because if you reject My way, you reject your salvation. My way was to obey the will of My Father¹⁶ who is in Heaven and governs the destiny of all creation for the good and salvation of all that you do not even know. Everything enters into the plan of salvation, nothing will remain out.

Prepare yourselves, children, for the Calvary and the redemptive Cross arrives to this world, which does not wish to speak of pain, only of the vain and perverse joy, because it binds you to this world and makes you forget your condition of pilgrim, who walks towards the true house, the eternal. I wait for you to wash your stains of sin and to lead you on this home straight.

Grab My hand strong, and do not let go, no matter what happens; entrust yourselves to your Savior, trust in My Love for you, children of My soul.

Mistrust hurts My Holy Heart, like the spear that opened My side¹⁷. Do not be distrustful and think that the pain and suffering experienced in obedience to the Will of My Father is your Salvation. How many souls, children, have found true joy in accepting pain with humility and peace, knowing that if God the Father allows it, is for the good¹⁸, for immeasurable good in their souls and in the souls of all men.

Oh children, the value of pain and suffering is being lost, fading away in this world of pleasure that wants to give you the news that your ears of sin want to hear. No children, that pain purifies and rejoices the soul when offered to the Father united to Me; in the Holy Cross that brought the Good and the Grace, the Redemption¹⁹ to a world that was dedicated to the eternal damnation of all men.

Without the cross no soul would have been saved. My Mother Most Holy was redeemed in My Holy Cross and chosen from all eternity without blemish or sin to collaborate in the redemption of the world. She was elected from the redemption of her soul as all creatures of God the Father have.

My Cross saves²⁰, redeems. Join your cross to Mine in an act of love and trustworthy. Do not be suspicious of the Love of God, when you see your brothers, children, elders dying; No, do not be suspicious, they are in My hands like you are and if their time has come, rejoice that they leave this world of sin; just worry that souls are in the state of Grace at the moment of dying, that they take shelter of My Salvation at the last moment if they have lived far from Me, but do not distrust the Love of God. One day you will comprehend, you will understand, because death, far from being an evil, is a door that brings you to Me and to an Eternity of Love, if the soul wants and accepts My Salvation. Desire for the peace and glory in which My saved and redeemed souls live, who have accepted and desired the Salvation of My Cross. Children, be prepared to live the cross; the Cross that Redeems and Saves in the purification of pain and suffering.

Souls of My Father take your staff and unite with Me in the last rescue of this world; go to the lost sheep because there will be no more time to live this apostolate. Then the world will be driven to perdition and only the souls who want My Salvation will find those gaps of Light and Glory that will be their opportunity for Salvation. The Holy Spirit groans²¹ in every soul for you until the end.

Pray for the Holy Father. Pray for My Church, so often lost and without direction and prey of satan. But fear not, I Am with you and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it, but it shall be cleansed with rigor of all its stains. Woe to him that misleads²² My sheep, My people, it would have been better for him not to have been born²³ because the Justice of the Almighty God will fall upon him with a rigor that you can not imagine, for it exceeds all mortal knowledge. It would have been better for the one who carries to hell a single soul of My Father not to be born, because the punishment will be as cruel as that of that poor soul who, trusting in his wicked words, departs from the way of God; both will fall into the pit, but I assure you that he who misleads a soul will suffer the most cruel torments of hell and for all eternity. Oh, the pain they cause to the Heart of My Holy Father. The pain cause to My poor Heart so hurt by their offenses and ingritudes. There is no demon more cruel tan the children of men for whom I have shed My Blood and in their way stray the sheep of My people, Israel. How ungrateful and cruel, it would have been better for them not to be born than to cause this pain to My Holy Heart. I assure you, there will be no mercy for those who bring one soul to ruin. Pray for My Church, so persecuted; pray without fainting. One day all your sleepless nights will be paid to you in Heaven, which I have promised you²⁴.

It is time to wash the stains, to purify this world with the rigor and justice. Nothing is forever, only eternity; set out on your way to reach so great of gift: Heaven.

I wait for you. Come to Me, sheep of my flock²⁵; come to Me, do not let go of My hand.

Take My staff²⁶, in it is My hand; help Me to pick up the last stray sheep. Amen, amen.

Prepare yourselves for the pain and suffering, live it always from My Cross; never alone, you will not have the strength.

The Holy Spirit will comfort you²⁷ and in Him you will find strength and peace to live the Calvary, the purification of this world and your souls.

See the Glory of God, walk towards it. Do not stray from the road of your Savior.

I, Jesus, Am with you and urge you and encourage you in your walk. Look at Me on the Cross and you will find your strength.

Courage, children, I am with you²⁸ and I do not leave you.
