

MESSAGE 31 JANUARY.7.2017

Let the eyes of those that look to the Lord rejoice¹. May the hearts of those who wait for the Lord rejoice² because, children, your liberation has come.

May the husband rejoice with the wife, the brother with the brother and the son with his parents because your liberation has arrived³.

Do not make yourselves deaf⁴, those who look the other way to these words I say for your salvation. No, do not look the other way; do not think that your liberation will still take time⁵. Look, wait in your hearts for what others longed to know and you will see⁶.

Oh children of men, how little you know the Holy Scriptures, how little you know Me. Your gaze is fixed in this world but not in the Lord, if your eyes will look upon Me they would understand the time of salvation that you are living; but no, you do not look at your Savior, you look at the world and all that belongs to it.

Poor and blind, hard of heart⁷, that you look and know the things of this world⁸ and, being by My side, you do not listen to My voice and you do not know Me⁹; and presume to be Mine, to eat with Me and to be by My side. Blind guides¹⁰, whitewashed graves¹¹ you put heavy burdens¹² upon My children and do not seek their salvation. If a man was told that he is near the most beloved person, he would run to meet him, but you neither run nor let others do it¹³.

You hide My arrival out of fear and cowardice and one day I will ask you to answer before the Court of God, My Father. You are deceiving My people with your worldly and cheap wisdom that you have acquired in new books of wisdom from others, but you do not live the Wisdom that comes from above, that My Holy Spirit gives you; but the poor and simple¹⁴ receive the Light that comes from above as something simple and normal in their lives. It would be better for you not to know how to read or write and that no one should greet you in the streets rather than lose the finesse of the innocence of your heart, which speaks and sees its Lord in himself and in all his creatures and has his heart open to the powerful action of My Holy Spirit.

How many accounts will you have to give before the Most High. How many accounts will have to come out of your hearts since being before Me you do not recognize Me¹⁵, because your heart lives in the world and for the world. You will again crucify Me in your children whom I placed at your side to help them on their way to Me, but you separate them from Me and leave them without the joy in their hearts to wait for the Savior of their souls. You are corrupting their souls with your vexations and vices that you have acquired by your lack of hope in My arrival¹⁶. Perhaps you do not wait for the Savior of your souls? Perhaps you do not want it to happen in your mortal life? Why do you remove hope from the hearts of My children who wait and long for My arrival? One day I will ask accounts of your twisted and unbalanced conduct because he who lives in My grace lives the Gospel and expects all that I, Jesus, have promised in him and rejoices with those who hope and love My Arrival and desires that sin is extinguished from the face of the Earth.

Brood of vipers¹⁷, you are playing the game to satan, prince of lie that does not want that no soul awaits My arrival nor repents of all their sins and change of life before the imminence of My arrival.

The world crucifies me again in you. Pharisees of this century, you dress with long robes and hobnob with the influential people and allow My children to be aborted in the womb of their mothers, you who do not shout to the world: Murder! And you shut your mouth up and enter your hiding places of cowardice and sin. More courageous than you, who sit in the chairs and pontificates of your ministries are My poor and illiterate children who cry out: Assassination to abortion, adultery to those who maintain unlawful relationships without being married; and are not afraid of the harm that it can cause in their lives. Children, learn from them, because salvation shines in them and in you eternal damnation. You like to be admired and chosen for charges of pomp and noise, but you are not humble, you do not prefer to be taken for a fool¹⁸ and to defend life and the Gospel as you have received it from your God and Lord. The blood of the innocents will run through your faces washed and perfumed in the lie and cruelty of this world that is ruled by satan and his followers.

Thieves of souls, who being of God pervert with sweet mermaids songs: speaking of a love that is a lie. Love is crucified in your souls and bleeding for all your crimes and lies.

Come out of your hiding places¹⁹ and stand before Me, come out of your hiding places of cowardice and face your God, to whom nothing hides from your twisted and perverse thoughts²⁰. You love more your life than the Life that I brought you from heaven in My Cross. Love the cross those of you that think that are wise and understanding; love the cross and be crucified in it and shout that: the Savior of the world is approaching, He is arriving to this world of sin, that souls repent of their sins and come to the source of mercy and forgiveness; because God, the Son of God, comes to the souls to be accountable for all their crimes in a day of justice and rigor as there has not been and will not be.

Shout to the world My Truth. Shout and do not be silent children of the devil²¹, you are making his way and not the way of God; every time you are silent about an abortion, adultery, profanation, you follow the ways of satan and not the way of the Son of Man.

Oh My people, I will not keep silent and speak and will condemn the sin that dwells in your souls. Oh people perverted, proud, arrogant and vain that you filter a mosquito and swallow a camel²²; one day your face will blush and your heart will tremble, for I will show you your sin²³, your betrayal.

Help My children, because I come and am not late.

Free My children of the cruel murder of abortion. Love the holy marriage²⁴ and do not allow those that live in illicit relationships of sin to receive Me²⁵. Help my children grow in the wisdom of Grace and unmask sin in their lives. My children grow corrupted by the evil of satan and you do not denounce it. What burden you have in your souls because you think that you are Mine, but you are children of satan! Anyone who consents to sin is the son of the devil²⁶ and is not the son of the Most High; Is a traitor and he will pay for his sin because he was born being Mine, but has left Me, has turned away from Me and helps the prince of lies to keep the souls away from My Holy Heart.

Oh children of God, denounce the evil and the sin that surrounds you. Shut the mouths of those who depart from Me and do not condemn sin, but exult it, and pervert the consciences of My children, My holy people.

It is time to prepare the heart and the soul, your whole life, to stand before Me, face to face with your Savior.

Do not let them pervert your conscience. Do not let them kill your hope²⁷ and shout: the Lord is coming, alleluia.

Proclaim the truth of My coming, that the broken bones may rejoice, that happiness and joy may reign in your hearts, for the Lord of your lives is at the door and calls. Do not permit My coming to be silenced by the lie of Satan, who corrupts the hearts and fills them with unbelief. Poor victims of fear and cowardice; they will blush before Me the day of My arrival, for not having believed what I said to you and what it is written in My Holy Gospel for your salvation.

Help My unborn children in the womb of their mothers. Preserve My Holy Body to be received into souls who are in sin²⁸. Do not allow My Holy Body to be trampled on the floors of your churches by the negligence of your shepherds. Amen, amen.

Alleluia, children of men, I come and I will not delay.

Be courageous²⁹ and die on the cross of the martyrdom of this world in your souls, who pursues them because they are Mine and hear My voice³⁰. You will not regret the last day.

³⁰ Jn 10, 27

Help them, for others do not help them, and they should, for they are placed by Me for your salvation, but they have betrayed Me and are victims of the cowardice and fear that satan has put in their hearts.

Be brave³¹ and turn your face to your God and Lord; one day I will repay you in heaven, which I have promised you.

Help My shepherds, those who follow the Gospel and do not love their life so much as to fear losing³² them through suffering and fidelity to My words; these honor and give Me glory and are balm for My Holy Heart, which suffers day by day the ignominy of My holy people, because I Am in him, but crucifies Me in the souls of My children.

Oh, moans and screams are heard, it is My people who mourn for their sins before their Redeemer. Laments and cries of pain fill the horizon of this world; it is My people who are judged by the Judge³³ of this world. He who has the staff of command, which the Father placed in His hands to judge³⁴ and separate the chaff from the wheat³⁵.

Come blessed of My Father³⁶ and you will inherit the Eternal Kingdom, because you avoided sin and you did not allow My children to be condemned following the lies and the evil of this world.

Come blessed of God, because you came to rescue Me from souls in sin by taking your brothers to the Grace of Salvation.

Come, children, come to My Kingdom³⁷, which is not of this world, come, those of you that have endured and suffered for your Redeemer and you did not love the world so much that you were deceived by it.

I am the Way, the Truth and the Life³⁸ and there is no Salvation outside of Me³⁹.
