

MESSAGE 32 FEBRUARY.7.2017

Look at the stars of the sky, the sun which gives you light. Look at the celestial bodies of heaven, for they announce My coming¹. My arrival at the end of time as it has been announced from ancient times, for your salvation, in the Holy Scriptures².

Look, children, the signs that announce to you, that my arrival is imminent³ to your hearts: Day of Justice and Truth as there has not been and will not be. Get yourselves ready with frequent confession, may not that Day⁴ surprise you with your souls in sin, because then there will be no remedy, you can do nothing but appear before the King of kings as your souls are.

There is no remedy for this generation who has satan in its hands; only he who wants My light and seeks it in the darkness will find My favor and My grace on the day of danger.

It is a rebellious generation as there has not been, because it does not recognize its sin and the Day of My anger⁵ will ignite My rage against it because it has not recognized its God and has not believed in My signs, that I put before you for your good and salvation.

It is time to gather in your house, to meditate and think about My Passion⁶ and your life and begin to conform your souls with Me, in My agony at Gethsemane⁷. Yes, children, the time of tribulation for this world is coming and still you continue in your things. Do not be discouraged or frightened; My messages prevent and prepare you to live what is still to come. Remember the early Christians, for you will live a similar and unequalled time. You must stand firm in the faith⁸, like them, because you will be persecuted and some will be killed because of My Name⁹.

Alelluia, sons of men, because your liberation is near. Prepare yourselves with your sandals and your staff and walk into the desert in your life; there reflect and persevere, do prayer and fast and read the Holy Scriptures.

It is a time of solitude and prayer to prepare you for what you are going to live; let it not catch you unaware, as the thief¹⁰ in the night, the time of the tribulation; because children, now I am informing and warning you again, but you do not listen to Me and you follow in your things, although you have a good will to start to work in this way. Now, children, with firm a determination and decision, accommodate your lives to the preparation of the time of rigor that is approaching.

My priests will be persecuted by the infernal lion¹¹, they will be persecuted because they are channels and depositors of My Grace. Help them to find refuge and help in you, for they must be safeguarded in all you can, so that you may continue to have and to find My help in them.

Accommodate your families to the time of rigor, and think how you must think now about them, since it is a different time which you have not lived through before, and it demands a new mentality from you.

Make decisions in order to the time of rigor that you are going to live, because you will be persecuted by the enemies of the Church, of My Church; they do not want Me, children, and those who used to love Me and hold positions of rigor within have turned against Me, have separated themselves from My Commandments and My Gospel and are urging My Holy People to follow them and to depart from Me. Do not listen to them; turn a deaf ear to their exhortations; do not pay attention to them, and pray for them. You, follow My holy shepherds, those who love Me and obey My Holy Gospel and faithfully fulfill My Commandments. Only to them you must follow and obey, do not pay attention to those who urge you to follow paths that lead you away from the Magisterium of the Church inspired by the Holy Spirit, for now you will live a time that the Magisterium will be inspired by satan, not by My Holy Spirit. Take care of My Holy Gospel¹² and do not let them rectify it and if they do, do not follow them, for times will come when nothing will remain as I have given you and they will say to you that it is in My Name; no children, do not listen to them nor pay attention, instead you follow My ways of fidelity to the Father and obedience¹³ to His Mandates and do not trust those who will tell you that it is in the name of love. Love is only one and has inspired My Holy Gospel and all Sacred Scripture; and his Word is that of God. Listen only to the Holy Spirit, because there will come days of blackness and darkness in which they will try to convince you that what comes from satan is the work of the Holy Spirit.

Oh My poor children, how much will you suffer for My Name, for My sake! I will be with you¹⁴ and My angels will assist you in your agony.

My Holy Gospel will be burned before your eyes, to replace its words with those of satan and whoever those this will be applaud, for he will tell you that he does it in the name of love for all creatures and will convince many and will be many that follow him and they will think that he is a man of God, but no, children, whoever changes, rectifies and erases some Word of the Sacred Scripture and changes My Holy Gospel¹⁵, even one Word, one letter, comes from satan and he is not Mine.

Oh My beloved children, prepare to live the confusion of the times that will try to lose My souls and saw error and confusion in their souls. Oh My beloved children, hold fast to My Holy Heart, and do not let go, for in It you will find your refuge.

The times that I speak to you about are already here and the evil plans of those who follow the devil begin to sound on the horizon and they want to lose My Holy people.

Children, be attentive to these words that I send to you through My dear child of the soul; listen to her, because they do not come from her; they come from My mouth and I put them in her heart. Oh children, listen diligently to My warnings and follow My words and counsels which is for your good and salvation.

Be in grace and remain in grace, flee from mortal sin as the poison that can perish your life; behold that the Lord will appear suddenly¹⁶ and how will He find you? In sin? In grace? Waiting? Or in your things, distracted by the things of this world?

Look at the seriousness and rigor of My words, because there will not be many more messages that My children can bring you, those who serve Me, and are empowered by My Holy Spirit for this task within the Church.

Listen, children, and be ready, for the time has come. Days will come, Oh Israel, My people that you will not hear the song of the maiden or the cry of the child, for the silence of the terror in your souls will hold you to silence. It is the time of pain and suffering of My Holy People, who will suffer the sin of the world: to have renounced their God and follow the ways of the devil.

¹⁵ 2 Tes 1, 8-9

¹⁶ Lk 12, 35-40

Warn your brothers, and then weep in the silence of your room; do not worry about their answers, for it is not you who they need to find, but Me, in your words and fidelity to My Commandments to warn them.

Do not be surprised by bad news, because they are arriving in your lives. The news that will change your lives and you will be ready to see the imminence of My arrival and all that I have warned you about.

Be strong, and do not faint since I will always be¹⁷ next to you, and you will have the assistance of My Holy Spirit¹⁸ and of the angels of heaven, who will come down to assist you in your struggle and suffering¹⁹.

Make prayer groups; do not be alone. Pray and attend Holy Mass united and implore the consolation and favor of heaven for this world that is directed to the cross. Ask for those who will err the way and will confuse their steps and will confuse others; pray for them to find the Light of Truth. Pray and be united in My love; pray the Holy Rosary together imploring My help and My assistance in the hard and difficult moments, that are coming, that are approaching this world. Suffer²⁰ with peace to those who insult you and make you suffer, because they do not believe in My words, that I bring you by My instruments to warn you of the time of rigor that will come to your lives.

It is a time of silence and prayer of fasting and of penance, because many souls will be condemned, for they will follow the prince of this world; satan; he will deceive²¹ and lose many souls who will follow him and depart from Me.

Pray for the undecided and hesitant²², pray for them to realize their error and return to the path of Light and Truth, to the path of obedience to My Holy Commandments and My Holy Gospel. Amen. Amen.

Do not worry about your families and loved ones; if you fight by My side, I will help them with the special Grace that you will put in My hand by your prayers²³ for them. Yes, children those of you who place your loved ones in My Holy Heart with your prayers, fasting and penance, make the especial Grace of conversion rebound around them for the salvation of their souls.

Her I Am Israel, here I Am.

Prepare your soul for My coming to your heart, because the time of Justice has been fulfilled and is upon arriving.

Prepare yourself, My people, to receive your Lord in your heart and soul because the time of Mercy is at your doors, to redeem you of the sin and of the evil that grips this world.

Prepare yourselves, children of men, because the rigor and calamity is at your door, and it will reach you.

Fear not, my people, that your Savior is with you.

Do not fear, soul of My Father, for your Savior will defend you as His Life and His Glory.

Do not be afraid, little sheep of My flock, for your Good Shepherd will take you to green pastures²⁴ and save you on the day of the evil plague, the attack of the wolf and the poacher²⁵.

Do not be afraid, My people, because I come to save you from this world of sin²⁶ and lead you into My Kingdom²⁷ of Justice and Love.

Rejoice, son of My Soul, because your Salvation comes.

Open the doors, because the King of Glory²⁸ is going to enter.

Let the hearts hurt by evil and sin be gladdened, for your deliverance has come. I will heal your wounds and comfort your hearts²⁹ from all evil, which you will suffer for your faithfulness and for the sake of My Name.

Alleluia, children of men, be strong³⁰ and brave because I Jesus, Am on your side I do not leave you. Amen. Amen.

It is not a time of idleness in your life, but of work and strong prayer trusting in My words: that I come and I will not delay³¹.

Accompany My holy priests, do not leave them in these so difficult times for them.

Gather and pray in My Name; give good example³² to one another and be faithful until death to My Holy Gospel; in it is Truth, Life and the Way³³ to heaven; never turn away from it and reject any doctrine that is not based on My Holy Word, on the Truth Revealed by My Holy Spirit.

Goodbye children, pray, pray without ceasing³⁴ and never lament that you are My elect; your reward will be great in heaven³⁵.
