

MESSAGE 35 MAY.7.2017

I am here to judge¹ the Earth, to judge this world prisoner of the infernal enemy: satan.

Oh my, people listen to your Savior in this time of history in which I am addressing you; listen to My voice, by compassion child. Listen to all that your Savior, your God and your Lord have to say to you; because once I speak I will not speak again to the one that does not want to listen to Me.

Listen Israel². Listen out. Shema: Do not forget the precepts which your God and Lord gave you. O Jerusalem of My entrails, in My Heart you live and I love you, do not depart from Me, out of compassion, for days will come, declares the Lord, that you will desire to see what you have seen and to hear what your ears have heard, but the time will have already passed.

I come to you, My people, I come in Glory and Power to judge³ this world of sin and evil that lives in its heart. There will be no time, O son of My entrails, if you are determined to follow your evil ways. There is going to be no time left, My child. Now, now is the time of forgiveness and peace in your soul. Obey My Commandments⁴, get out of danger from the infernal enemy, make peace with your Savior, for your heart is stained of the evil and sin that satan has put in it and you have consented. Now son, now is the time to go to the source of salvation, to the source of Grace, go to My ministers and you will not regret the last day.

There is no time for hesitation in your life because water and sulfur will fall from the sky and the solar storm will close the door to all communication to which you are accustomed, you will be alone with Me, alone with your God and Lord, you will not be able to rely on what others say, but only on what is in your heart. Man lives dispersed among so much news and confusion as it comes to him by the news of the each day and the excessive communication to which he has become accustomed; but days are coming, O Israel, when your soul will taste and know what loneliness is. Do not worry, My child, but you must know what silence is in your life and you will not be able to rely on what others speak or say, or believe or insinuate, but only in the truth that you have before you, prepare to stand before your God and Lord.

The signs will happen and you will learn to see, to listen and to discern⁵ within you because the Grace of My Holy Spirit will assist you⁶.

Do not tremble, do not fear, O son of God, but listen to My words that I address to you today by My instrument, which I chose for love of you.

Days of desolation will come to this world as you have not known because you have allowed yourself to be seduced by the evil and sin of satan.

Learn the lesson of your ancestors, learn to listen⁷, learn son, because it is late. Do not leave for tomorrow what you can do today, because you do not know if there will be tomorrow, you do not know if you will live the next moment, but you live and boast in this world as if everything was forever. No son, no, you are a pilgrim⁸ and you are walking through this life of sin. Make your way through the weeds that encircles you and surrounds you until you exhaust your strength and let yourself be led by your Savior.

Now, now is the time of Salvation. I never tire of shouting these words to your heart, son, but I see that you do not listen to Me, you follow in your things and you boast of it. But you will cry, you will cry when the moment of rigor come to your life.

Prepare yourself, prepare to appear before Me, stop behaving like a child and be a man, a man with a child's heart that expects everything and confides without limit, without measure in the father of his soul⁹.

Now, now son is the time of the last Salvation. Come to My arms; wash in My Blood¹⁰, the Blood that I poured out for you in My Cross. Do not waste the Blood of your Redeemer¹¹. Hallelujah.

O children, how much do you make My Holy Heart suffer you're your rejection and ingratitude to My Sacrifice on the Cross¹² for your Salvation. You do not look at Me on the Cross¹³, in the place of My torment for Love of you; you just want to be feasting and living to your liking but, O Israel, by My name I tell you that you will die in the eternal fire if you reject the Salvation that the Son of Man came to bring you. The Salvation that the whole world waited for and came to bring you the Son of God¹⁴.

Prepare yourself, prepare yourself son of men, for the way of your truth, your salvation, is near, it is at your door. Why do you persist obstinately in seeking a date if the only thing the Son of God asks of you is to cleanse your soul of all the sin that is in it? You, obey your Savior and the date will arrive at the appointed time.

Start working on your salvation and the salvation of your brothers.

Speak to My priests of the time of rigor that comes to this world, they are dull with the things of this world and do not look in the direction I expect of them. They are alienated, how many of them!, from the rigor that is going to fall on this world, because the world has also make prey of them.

No children, no, learn from the beasts and the flowers of the field that serve and give glory to God because they do not reject God's design on them, they live and die but they do not rebel. You in your freedom and superiority over them, you must learn from the nature that was created by the same Creator¹⁵ who created you, children. Learn from everything created, for in everything is the hand of My Holy Father. If you looked at creation, you would see how nothing escapes the design of Love and Salvation that is upon it. You were created in the image and likeness of God¹⁶ with a destiny and a superior design; but all that surrounds you, teaches you and you must learn. The whole creation will enter into My rest¹⁷, read Sacred Scriptures, you are part of it, everything created by God is a whole and everything will participate in the last Salvation.

Keep the lamps¹⁸ lit because the Spouse of your soul comes and comes soon to this world of sin, which groans under the clutches of satan¹⁹.

The cross is at your doors, the cross that will give you the title of Glory. You seek the wisdom of this world and in this world you rejoice and exalt yourself as peacocks by your poor and worldly wisdom and instead you do not seek the title that gives the Eternal Glory: the Cruz of the Savior in your life²⁰. Hold fast to it and never let go of it, for in it is your salvation and the salvation of your brothers.

What do your ears want to hear? Why you do not prefer what your soul wants and longs to listen to? You are filled with curiosity and desire to know what only God in His Mercy has fixed for this world, but you get tired of hearing the Love of a God who came to bring you Salvation. O children of men, how dull are your hearts and how dry is your soul that does not desire My words of Love, that does not yearn and long for an “I love you” of your Savior.

O Israel, People of My Love and My entrails, why do you not love your Savior? Days will come that you will seek My Love in the Tabernacle and you will not have it because you were unfaithful to My Love, you abandoned Me, you left Me alone and you went after other gods²¹, gods of mud and clay that break and are not useful to you nor serve you for nothing, nothing more than to find the path of perdition and eternal damnation.

O children, how much you waste the time that remains for you! But My Love reminds you and reminds you that it is late and you must prepare your soul and your life for all that is to come to this world, which you already live in so many parts of this world that is bound to evil and perdition, but everything will get worse until it leads to an authentic and ruthless persecution of Christians, My children, those who are Mine.

O Israel, blood will run through this world of sin and My children will die at the hands of their executioners for the cruel and bloodthirsty hatred of the enemy of your soul. That day, o My people, you will seek My hand, you will seek the mantle of My Mother to cover you, but you will not have it if you do not now prepare yourself and prepare your brothers for when that time comes, since, in those moments of rigor, only the soul that has been disposed in this time will have the Light of My Grace and the assistance of My Holy Spirit. It is very difficult for the man who has his heart and soul, rotten by the sin of satan, to recognize My Grace. The measure of your preparation, however small, will bear fruit in those moments of rigor and horror that come inexorably to this world. All will be fulfilled and the martyrdom of My children will come.

By your Goodness and your Grace give to the effort its merits²², you say, thus you pray to the Spirit of God; ask for it children, so that these words may come true in your life.

O children, days of justice come to this world: “prepare, prepare!” your Savior shouts to your sleeping souls. Wake up²³, children, from the mortal lethargy in which you live and sleep. Awake, My people, your Savior is coming!

Days of justice and infernal cruelty you will live in this world, coming days that are arriving, that are coming and that will knock on your door.

Son, if your soul lives for the Lord, you will not be the pasture of the cruel enemy.

Learn from the beast of the field and the lilies²⁴ that allow to be made and undone by their Creator; do yourselves the same: be docile, shut your mind of your rebelliousness and oppositions to the designs of the Only Creator of Heaven and Earth. Hallelujah.

Seek children seek salvation, the last salvation, for this world is finished with all that is in it and has perverted your hearts and existences. Everything will be thrown into the lake of fire²⁵ with the only perverter of your souls, through which sin came to this world created for love and happiness by the hands of My Holy Father, the only potter²⁶ who kneaded and shaped the mud of your life with the greatest Love and tenderness that has no limit or comparison in this world, because you do not know the height and grandeur of the Love of God. Children, only in the state of grace your soul is able to see a soft and small glimpse of that infinite Love that one day you will see, you will understand and you will enjoy in Heaven: if in your life you have embrace the love of God.

Do not be discouraged, do not seek the wisdom of others, seek within yourself the Wisdom of God²⁷, which gives strength and love to fight on the way, the wisdom of others leads to discouragement and hopelessness. Seek everything that is of God and you will find the joy and strength to live in this world.

O children, this world is over. Open your hearts to the voice of God.

The infernal enemy will try to destroy My words, but you come to prayer²⁸ and there you will find strength and light to resist firm in faith.

It is late and the terror and cruel world is inexorably advancing in your lives. Close the door to sin and you will live: otherwise you will die²⁹ in the eternal fire that is not extinguished. Yes children, he who rejects the Salvation of God receives his own condemnation.

Do not waste the time you have before you, in which I expect your effort and dedication to everything that the Savior of your souls asks of you.

Set to work urging everyone to follow the Light of the Gospel and to live My sacraments. In the state of grace, in grace I want your souls to be; reconciled with God in the sacrament of penance before coming to receive Me in communion.

You are not simple as doves³⁰; learn the simplicity, the softness of the firm heart in God and His Commandments.

I have not come to punish, I have come to save; only he who rejects the Cross of Christ condemns himself. Yes, children, whom My Cross saves, does not condemn.

³⁰ Mt 10, 16

The infernal serpent pursues your condemnation since you were created: by the hatred and pride of satan to God, he seeks and pursues you to bring your souls to eternal damnation, but children, you have My Cross, hold fast to it and you will be saved. I will give you Eternal Life.

Do not fear, because I, Jesus am with you and I do not abandon you. I do not abandon My dear soul children and I will always be³¹ at your side.

Open your hearts to the Son of God, who comes, He arrives at the hour³² fixed by My Holy Father who is in heaven. Hallelujah.

Never be discouraged and follow My Commandments: in them is the salvation of your souls; do not listen to those who correct or suppress them: those are not Mine, even if one day they were; flee from them as you flee from eternal damnation. Hallelujah.

Give Glory to God with your life being faithful to My Word: to My Holy Gospel.
