

MESSAGE OCTUBRE.3.2017

Days will come, O Jerusalem, that oil and fire will rain on this land of sin.

There will be no stone left on the Lord's holy mountain because the sins of this generation, rebellious and perverse are many and very serious.

Nothing will scape My wrath, for I stood at your door¹ and called you and you did not open it to Me; you have closed your ears to the voice of your Savior who wept before your door because of the danger of the damnation of your soul.

O Jesrusalem, O Zion, you are not aware of the day of your salvation and you are still in the things of this world, feasting² and laughing and giving your back to your Savior³.

Repent of the evil of your youth and do penance, weep for your sins and read in the Holy Scriptures the end of all men that you repent and turn your soul to the One God and Lord.

Nothing will escape My anger because I was at your door and you did not open it to Me, you did not listen to the voice of your Savior, who groans day by day for the sins of this rebellious and obstinate people.

Days will come, O Jerusalem, that your joyful² voice will be extinguish.

I will not pity you, if you do not listen to the voice of your Lord and follow My ways, ways of salvation.

Days of mourning will sweep this land of sin and tears and weeping will be your food day and night⁴, because you did not listen to the voice of your Savior.

Yes, My people, here I am, here I come before you. Recognize the one who gave you Life and you will save your soul; otherwise you will die in the eternal fire that is never extinguished and where souls suffer day and night for an eternity.

A chosen people, people of My entrails. Wake up, My people and repent⁵ of all your sins, for I come, I am at the door and you will appear before Me on the day of the special judgement of your soul⁶.

Listen to My voice and you will not regret it, because in Me you will find the salvation that your heart longs for.

Do not let yourself be deceived⁷ and misled by false voices, which shout around you like sirens⁸ songs, they want to lose your soul.

I warn you⁹, My people, listen to Me, go to your Savior.

The fire will fall on this land of sin and it will destroy all the evil that lives in it. Hide that day from My wrath, lest it overtake you, son of Zion.

Nothing bad or perverted will remain in this world of sin. My chariots of fire¹⁰ will come with the last army of the Lord and will end all the evil that is left in this land of wickedness, in which the chosen and beloved earth of the Eternal Father became.

Your eyes will see the Savior; the people of Israel will shout; “Hallelujah, Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord” and your elders and young men will prophesy and speak strange tongues, for the Spirit of God will fall and pour¹¹ out like dew on this land of sin. It will be the last salvation, the last ransom. Blessed are the eyes and ears that are pending to recognize that day, because once I speak and I will not speak again to anyone who does not want to hear the words of the Savior of his soul¹².

O My people, blessed land of God, that you prostituted yourself and ended up in the clutches of the evil traitor; repent and return to the first plan of God, of love and tenderness; return to the first design that was upon you, My people; it is still time to return to the Holy Heart of your God, but do not delay¹³ the way, because time is over and the opportunity of the last salvation will close your door and the plan of purification and pain will fall on you and you will not longer have the time of reflection and forgiveness that I now place before you.

The infernal serpent wants to corrupt the highest designs that God has on this world of sin and will tempt the purest hearts, as a deceitful and treacherous viper to snatch them from God. But be alert and endure the martyrdom of temptation, do not fall into their nets of evil and perversion, that you are My holy children of God.

Listen to these words that I bring to you through My instrument and give thanks to God for them, because even the dew of My voice falls on this dry and parched lost world. Give thanks to God for the plan of love, which today is poured out on you through these words of love and warning.

It is not late, but be alert because the roaring lion is looking for someone to devour: My holy and pure souls. Do not be deceived by him and hold fast to the Cross¹⁴ of your Savior; in it you will find the strength to suffer and to overcome temptation.

I love you¹⁵, children of My soul; listen to My voice in the silence of your heart¹⁶ and reflect on them.

Days will come, O Jerusalem, that the child will put his hand in the hole of the serpent and it will not bite¹⁷ him and the lion and the kid will graze together. O Israel, that a design of love and salvation awaits you as you have never could imagine.

Wait Israel, wait on the Lord¹⁸, be strong and have courage, be courageous in the path of pain and let your feet walk on the path of salvation.

Goodbye children, I love you and carry you in My Holy Heart. I pray for you day and night before My Holy Father and My Mother watches over you with maternal care, like a caring mother, with love.
