

MESSAGE 56 FEBRUARY.1.2019

Open the doors to the King of kings¹, the King of Glory² will enter, the King that comes to judge His people³.

Open the doors, the lintels; because He is already here, He is on his way.

A judgment, a King, only one King⁴, only one God, only one people: the people of God.

I will gather you from east to west, all the people will prostrate before Me⁵, because on that day will be before you the Only Judge, the Only God, the Only Lord who will shepherd⁶ His people and free them from the hunter⁷ that hurts, who kills and who condemns the souls to the eternal fire.

O people of My entrails, that in a single instant you will see Me and you will prostrate yourselves before Me, you will see your life pass before you that day⁸ and you will render account to He who governs everything: heaven and earth. That day you will be before the Son of man and you will not be able to do anything to escape the justice due to this lost world, which lies on its own vomit⁹, among the death throes of its own death, because there is no life left for it, only the end and death.

A life before you was the gift of My Father¹⁰ who is in heaven, but what did you do with the gift of life? Did you waste the gift received, or did you take advantage of it for your good and that of your brothers? Nothing will be left without the reward due to effort and merit, but the flames burn day and night¹¹ for those who did not want the salvation of God, One and Triune.

You will see the Son of man descend among the clouds¹², the sign of the Cross¹³ will precede Him and all the peoples will be gathered and will prostrate before Whom they will have to give account that day and you will be able to do nothing, son, to escape from the end of life: the Judgment and the reward or the eternal damnation¹⁴.

I already announce it to you from the past, you read it in your Masses, but you do not believe it or you do not want to pay attention: the day will come and you will see yourselves before the Son of man, who has received from the Eternal Father the staff of command to judge¹⁵ all the Nations.

A balance¹⁶ looms over the sky, you will see it, in it your life will be weighed, your good deeds and also the bad, a faithful one will rule the measure: the Truth; and you will be judge because, children, you did not come to this world for evil: but for good and justice; to love: not to hate; to be faithful to God: not to betray your God. Nothing will be left without justice, without the rigor required to enter into eternal life.

The angels will gather My sheep to the right, and the goats shall put them aside¹⁷, they will separate the wheat from the chaff¹⁸, because the Lord comes for His harvest, for which He gave His blood. The good fruits will be put on one side, the bad and rotten will be thrown into the eternal fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth¹⁹. Everything has been warned in the Sacred Scripture, nothing will be by surprise except My arrival²⁰, children, nor does the Son know it, only the Father²¹ who rules heaven and earth.

A new world²² will come and the old will end with its injustice and its impiety.

Life will begin, because death will end; but before, children of My Soul, you must suffer the rigor of this time: hunger and calamity, the war²³ and the terror of a world, which will be totally in the hands of satan, and that will be, and is, his downfall, because truth and good, justice and love²⁴, will be excluded from this world. You will cry out to the Son of man to come and you will beg to heaven day and night²⁵; you will not want to live in a world where life is drowned and, worse than that; everything created for good and love by My Father will be destroyed. Living will become a terror every day and you will cry to heaven for My Coming. All those who belong to Me will wait for Me, in what is truly My Coming to this world: Salvation. But for now you are joyful and careless and if I did not send you the calamity, no one would wait for Me and all of you would be lost the day you should appear to Me. Through pain and suffering: the cross in your lives will bring you closer to Me²⁶, to the truth and to the Salvation of your souls.

Why, children, do you not expect My Coming? Because now you are happy in your drunkenness and concupiscence, living your lives to your liking, because you are full of yourselves; you must let go of your egoism, of your own will, of your desires and wants, you must dispossess of your own selves and look to heaven and want only your God and to see in Him the only longing of your life and your soul. A hard and rough road is the one you must travel, to quit yourselves and to long for God alone.

Only one justice, only one scale, to measure good and evil, only one Judge²⁷, only one God²⁸ and Father of all men²⁹; yes children, that day will not open many roads before you, but only one, a single path that all must walk, the truth unifies does not divide, does not scatter.

Justice will quench the thirst of God in your souls, even those condemned by their own deeds, for they shall know and see that there is only one God, only one Judge, only one Love; and you will not be judged with arbitrariness of judgments and opinions., but by the One alone, who is the Truth and Supreme God, you will not be judged by one judge and others by another, but by a single Judge, the one who has received the authority³⁰ from He who governs and scrutinizes everything: the Eternal Father. In the judgment of your souls you will all become one and all of you will see each other as brothers, because the judgment of God will be one for all and in all.

Nothing will be hidden; nothing will remain unknowable³¹, because He who is the Light³² will enlighten everything before all.

Nothing will be left without the deserved payment, because your judge is just and those who love Eternal Life will enter it; and those who prefer eternal damnation, for their deeds and their rejection of God, there they will go, because nothing bad will enter Eternal Life, everything will be washed and purified among those who are called for Eternal Life, because nothing impure will enter in it. All accounts will be paid, because nothing due can enter where everything is Grace and Gift, the accounts will be settled with the necessary purification and due to Him who paid the price of your freedom on the Cross³³: freedom to choose your path and become heirs of heaven, because until then you did not have the debt paid; but if you reject the One who paid³⁴ for it and the Gift of Salvation, you will be sentenced to death by your own freedom to choose your path.

Nothing will escape My Justice, because without justice love will end and God is Love³⁵, for that reason it is infinitely just.

Children of men, you separate the love of justice and the justice of love; you have not known God, you do not know Him and you go on in your own false opinions and criteria that make you wander the way. God is just and God is Love; and He is only One; Justice and Love are one in God, it is a single attribute of God, because everything is one: God Is³⁶.

Depart from the opinions and philosophies of this world, from the knowledge of this world that confuses you, children, who deceives you, children, pay no heed to the deceptive wisdom of this world³⁷: it is the lie of satan³⁸ that seduces you and deceives you again and again and sets you apart from the truth: he deceives you, because he knows your pride³⁹: that you want to be like God, to govern yourselves, be your own judges and do not want the loving and filial dependence of being children, children of God⁴⁰ and obey as children, to listen as children; no, you want to be judge and have a say in everything; you lack humility: the humility of the one who waits for everything and needs it from his God and Father, and he listens and runs solicitously to His call and faithfully obeys His Mandates, knowing that what his Father and God says is the best for him, and he is happy under His protection and authority.

Children, return to smallness⁴¹, because it is the only way; look to your Redeemer: being God became one of you⁴², He became small, He descended for Love to the Father, for Love to My Father who is in heaven. Abba⁴³: Father, Daddy; call you Father in heaven that way. Be small, it is the door of heaven; obey: submit yourselves with joy and love to your Father and may His will be your delight; learn from Me that I am Meek and Humble of Heart⁴⁴; children, listen to Me, that the time of the harvest of this world is coming and My Father will send the angels⁴⁵: be prepared.

I, Jesus, warn you of the time of rigor, of the final time, because a new world will come, a Kingdom of Love, of Justice and of Peace⁴⁶.

Doors open the lintels that the King has already arrived, the staff of command precedes Him, He comes to judge the land of injustice and impiety, of the evil poured out by satan.

I come to save My children from the tyranny of the devil. I come to take My children to a Kingdom of Love.
