

MESSAGE 61 JULY.1.2019

“My blood spilled for your love”, O Jerusalem of My entrails, how long I wanted to be with you, by your side, loving you without ceasing; but you are unruly and you went after other gods, gods of clay and stone that will only bring you the destruction of your life and your soul.

O children of My life, how much I suffer for you day and night, because you do not listen to Me, you do not listen to My advice, you do not meditate My Words, and this will lead you to suffering and to perdition. Do not forget My advice, do not forget My Words, because in them is the light. The light of your life and the salvation for your soul.

It is a time of peace in your lives, and of forgiveness, of calm and tranquility in your souls, because a time of pain and calamity is approaching, and you must prepare yourselves with rigor and with determination. I never get tired of repeating to My children not to neglect their preparation, and one day you will remember My Words, and you will thank them in your soul: My rigor and tenacity, patience in warning you of the evil that is going to devastate this Earth.

Do not neglect your preparation, your love, because the roaring dragon will not miss any opportunity to harass you and lay traps that are necessary in order to lose you forever. Be alert and attentive because the rigor of the preparation will make you hear the holy inspirations of My Holy Spirit in you, and thus be able to fight with the strength that is not of this world and to which you would succumb if you did not have the help of heaven.

I do not scold you, children, when I say that you do not to listen to Me but, as a good father does not stop informing and warning his children of the dangers and also teaches the good way, so My Holy Heart keeps watching over you day and night. O children how far you are from knowing the secrets of My Heart, the fire that burns and burns day and night for your love, so it does not lose you, so instead takes you with Me to the Eternal Kingdom of My Father who is in heaven.

O Corazin, o Zion, if I had revealed to other peoples what I put in you what answer of love would they have given Me, but you are stubborn and obstinate and let yourself be carried away by the perfidy of your heart poisoned with the arrows that reached you that were sent by the devil, satan.

It is not time to play and have fun without a care or measure in this world that offers sin disguised as play and fun, and you, children, are deceived by the poison of satan, the cunning and treacherous devil who is at your side and in you, only the Light and Grace of My Holy Spirit can heal you, liberate and lead you in this world. Children, pay attention to Me that the devil as a roaring lion is preying on many souls, souls that play with temptations and fall into them, never forget that it is superior forces than you that tempt you and set traps in your path and alone you can not deal with them, you need the Light of God and the Grace of the sacraments. Learn the lesson you received when you fell into them and do not forget your frailty and your heart inclined to evil and sin.

It is time of Grace and Salvation, of Forgiveness and Love; children, be brave and prepare to walk waiting for the visit, the arrival of your Savior into your heart.

The world will darken prey to the darkness of the infernal enemy that will seize the chair of Peter, will sit on the throne of God and from it will fight My holy people, because I, Jesus, am in it, I am in your midst and I love you and lead you to the final battle, and in it I will keep you from every evil if you stay by My side, and do not separate from Me, and do not let go of My hand, for days are coming, O Jerusalem, that the one who does not cling to My hand and embraces his cross, will succumb into the nets of the evil one, who will seize the powers of the world and fight souls with the infernal power of demons: fallen angels, for their arrogance and wickedness, to the lake of fire where they live and reign for all eternity, in a kingdom of putrefaction and evil among the flames of hell. His power is pride and hate, and he spoils the souls of My Holy Father, who were snatched by him in this world: souls who rejected the Salvation that the Son of man came to bring to this world of sin, shedding His Blood on the Cross, in a death full of ignominy and cruelty, in obedience to the Father to redeem souls and release them from the bonds of the infernal enemy, envious and arrogant, who only wants the destruction of good and beauty, of love and kindness. Children, do not ignore My warnings because how many souls have fallen into the nets of the enemy because of ignorance and they can no longer be released, because once the temptation catches you and once you have fallen into it, evil subjects you to the devil until you can not let go: only the grace of the sacraments in a sincere and profound repentance can work the miracle in you to return to the road, but how many souls involved in evil deeds already forget God and reject him. Therefore, children, I warn you: be careful, be alert and always live in the Grace of the sacraments, which holds you strong in My hand

My Blood cleanses you of all evil, it washes you of all your stains. Love My Sacrifice on the Cross, love My Blood poured out for you. Hold tight to My Cross and fight for it, for its Glory, may it be your staff, your insignia, your light, and never turn away from it, because in it is your salvation.

O children, how far you are from understanding the seriousness of this time, you still are not aware of the gravity of this moment in which you live in and that it will still worsen even more, children I do not alarm you, I warn you, although the warning may be alarming by your lack of ability to understand the Sacred Scriptures; there, are written the words that I address to you, this time is announced, but you do not believe it, you do not understand it and this is what the tempter of your souls takes advantage of, to make you fall into disbelief and neglect, and meanwhile he does not lose time and continues with his evil plans to end this world and, what is worse, with the salvation of your souls.

Listen to Me, children of Israel: I, Jesus, your God and Lord, I warn you of a time of rigor, of pain and calamity for your sins. Put yourself to work without rest, without weakening and overcoming all obstacles that prevent you from obeying My Words, which I direct to you through My instrument, the one that I chose for your salvation and your love.

Today I say to you, My people: now, it is time to walk, to leave Egypt and prepare to go to the promised land, to the promised heaven, to the land of promise, to the kingdom of Christ in this world. Leave your homes, your belongings, just take what is necessary and depart, depart united guided by My Holy Spirit and go through the darkness of this world. How? You will tell Me. Children, prepare the renewal of your mind, is the beginning of your journey, do not make plans for this world, and make plans for the crossing of the desert, united, singing and being faithful to your Moses, whom I placed among you and who guides you and will guide you to the promised land. I direct you, My Word directs you, My Holy Spirit and My Mother accompany you day and night. Nothing will be lacking if you are faithful and have faith, faith and trust in your God, who never left you and will never leave you until you reach the land that flows with milk and honey, where your souls will be safe from the roaring lion and the bloodshed by the martyrs on this path will be the seed of salvation and conversion. Prepare your sandals and your staff, sheep of My flock, the Shepherd of Israel will stand in your midst and lead you, he will speak to you through his prophets.

Courage, children, that a time of salvation still awaits, do not be discouraged, that your discouragement comes from this world. Leave your worries and parties, future plans: your way is to be aware of the Word of the Lord. Aleluya, Glory to God, may His Word be your light, and your Salvation.

O children of men, how awkward you are to understand the Words of salvation: open your mind to the new time of rigor and salvation that arrives, which is already here.

To God, children, head out towards Him: He is our refuge and your salvation.

My Blood will save you”.
