

MESSAGE 62 AUGUST.1.2019

“Shout¹, herald of Jerusalem², shout to the whole world the Truth of your God and Lord: don't stay quiet, don't panic, do not be afraid, because I'm with you³ and nothing will happen to you. The world needs your voice, your cry of love and fidelity to your God: speak, tell them what I say in your ear, inside your heart, communicate to everyone⁴, to the whole world that I, Jesus, your God and Lord, I speak to your heart day and night⁵ and I send you to tell them⁶: Oh, children of My soul, that you are not paying attention to my warnings, that a complete God comes down to you to warn you of the time of rigor that is coming⁷, which is already here and you ignore it; but days will come, oh Jerusalem of My entrails, that you will look at the sky thirsty for My Word⁸, the one that you now have every month near you, who warns you, who calls you to live on the road that leads you to Me, children; look to heaven, read My Word, listen to My Messages and that day you will rejoice.

A convulsive world knocks at your doors, the doors of your life, and makes you leave your comforts, your likes, your plans, you do not want to change your lives, you want to continue to feast⁹ and even suffer as long as nothing moves or changes around you, In truth, children, you forgot your condition as pilgrims¹⁰ and today I remind you one more time.

The world changes without stopping, but you don't want to change, you want to stay in it anyway and at whatever price; how little you yearn heaven, the Kingdom of Christ¹¹, Eternal Life.

You have settled so much in this life that you have forgotten your condition as walkers towards God, nothing is more painful than to see how your loved ones depart for eternity, because you do not yearn Eternal Life, because you do not think about it, because you do not live to One day you too will depart. You have forgotten that you have been created for eternity¹² that I await for you in the Kingdom of My Father¹³, that I left this world telling you that I would come back for you, that a new world awaits you, a new earth, a new heaven¹⁴; you have forgotten that the Fruit of My Redemption, the Fruit of Salvation: Eternal Life with the Father in the promised Heaven, awaits you.

You do not look at heaven, children, you only look at the ground your feet are stepping on but your eyes do not rise to heaven, do not crave or yearn for the Glory of God, you are in the midsts of your things, in the things of this world and one day you will regret your petty condition that ties you to this world until you are not able to let go of it.

If they talk to you about My coming, you get scared, why, children? Rejoice¹⁵, rejoice because I come to give you a Kingdom of Love and Peace, Justice¹⁶ and Mercy as you have not known in this world, rejoice and do not fear because what it awaits you, which it is already knocking at your door, is the Glory of God. Why doesn't your heart expand, why does it not beat with joy? I will tell you, children, because you have lost the yearning for which you were created: to be children of God¹⁷ and live an eternity by His side¹⁸.

Now is time of trial and purification for your sins, do not hold on to the time of trial and purification and discard the prize, the horizon that your soul longs for, children.

At the sound of My trumpet My angels will come down and fill this land with joy for the righteous, for they come to bring you the blessings of God, the help of the Lord; the rigor for the unrepentant sinner, for they will lead him away from the righteous and mark the path of condemnation, they will separate one from another¹⁹.

The orchard will flourish²⁰ and the Promised Land will welcome you, children; be prepared for that day.

A new world awaits you, a world of love and peace, long for that day in your heart.

At the sound of My trumpets²¹ be alert because I arrive, but there is still a little time, children.

A sound from heaven will come to you, listen to it, pay attention, it is a heavenly sound like you have never heard it before, it is a beautiful melody that will fill your soul with joy because you will feel that I am close, that I have arrived; you are so tied to this world that you have lost the patience or capacity to wait for what comes from heaven, you think these are stories, movies, impossible things; truly, children, you have turned away from Me, from heaven. You do not wait for the reality that awaits you and it is more true than what you are living because it will be eternal, it was before the Creation of the world and it exists while you only look and think of this world, a world that will disappear forever, that sheds blood of the innocent, who breaks the purity of white souls, who sows panic and terror in the hearts of My children and specially vulnerable are My favorite children: the priests, who pursues them with a vile that only wants them to disappear from the face of the earth; that is the world that you love, children, and from which you do not want to leave but you despise the celestial reality because you have forgotten it and want to erase it from your soul; no, children, do not do it, turn your eyes to heaven, look in your soul the traces of My Father, think of a reality that exists and awaits you and that exceeds all mortal knowledge by its Greatness, Truth and Wonder²²; many of those you have met in this world already live in it and departed to the Father and others await in the state of purification that is purgatory, but they yearn for it so much that it is the greatest suffering of their souls.

A new heaven, a new earth that your eyes do not look at, do not desire, awaits you.

I warn you, children, on this night²³, look at the sky because how difficult it is to conquer what it is not desired, what is not pursued, putting in it all the strength of your being. How to conquer what you do not love? Will you sit still, not wanting to make the smallest effort? But, alas, children, the one who longs for awaits, loves and desires the Eternal Life, the Life in God, the promised life with God, that one, will make an effort, fight, fight until he leaves his life in order to win the Crown that does not withers; the martyrs, the saints, the blessed, left in this life their blood, their tears, their efforts and violence in themselves in order to win the Eternal Life that Christ won for them on the Cross pouring his Blessed Blood²⁴. O children, think of My Words, in which I now direct you by My instrument, listen to them in your heart and yearn for Eternal Life with My Father who is in heaven.

²² Rev 8-10

²³ 1 Cor 2, 9

²⁴ Isabel testifies that she received the Message ver early in the morning: 'I looked at the clock and it was 10 minutes to two in the morning of August 1'. The dawn of the first day of the month has barely begun the Lord is in a hurry to speak to us and put us on guard and urges us to wake up from our indifference, because the day of His Coming is near and we are not preparing or warning those who do not realize that He is at the gates and comes to judge and save those who wish and are ready.

A new world awaits you, do you want it? Or do you prefer to live in your sewer where the pain and suffering inflicted by your sin and the sins of this world fill your life with sadness and anguish, open the horizon of your life and be happy in this world waiting for the life of love that never ends. How to be happy in this world? You will tell me, children, read the Holy Scriptures and live as I told you, as I left it pointed out to you in the Gospel and you will already be happy in this world living in anticipation of heaven.

O children, how blind you are because you do not read the Word that I left written to you through My disciples and apostles, read the Word, internalize it in your heart²⁵ that it will grow in your heart and bear fruit²⁶ and fruit in abundance.

Do not be afraid of death, but be afraid of sin, but it is not so in many hearts, children, help me to bring the sheep of My flock²⁷ that are not yet in it.

At the sound of the trumpet My angels²⁸ will come down, children, be prepared for that day by accepting and loving the cross of each day, the greatest tribulation cross that has ever been and will be²⁹, but the prize will be great³⁰ one day in heaven for those who, striving and fighting, win, take away³¹ the Victory, which one day the Son of man brought to you by dying on the Cross, it is the final Victory that the hardworkers snatch, the righteous, those who fight and yearn for the Kingdom of Christ. Suffer for the Crown of Glory that does not wither³², fight and wage war for it with the weapons of faith³³, in you, against the world in you, children, and your testimony will bring many souls³⁴ to the fold of the Good Shepherd³⁵.

It is time to walk, righteous of the Lord, courage that I am with you and I do not depart from you, sheep of My flock.

A sentence hangs over this world, stay far away from it even though you live in it³⁶.

I send you as sheep among wolves³⁷, but I take care of you and I will always be with you³⁸.
