

MESSAGE 63 SEPTEMBER.1.2019

I call you by your name¹, oh Jerusalem², city of My entrails, I call you by your name, come, come to Me; but you do not hear My voice³, you are entertained with other gods, gods of⁴ mud and clay that will be your perdition.

I call you, son of My entrails, so that you return to Me, to My Holy Heart, I call you day and night⁵ in your life, every moment of your life, but you do not listen to Me, you do not listen to your Lord, and this you will regret on the last day, because you need Me, My Mercy, but you do not know it, you do not want to know, you look the other way and you entertain yourself with the things of this world⁶, the world is your toy, and you behave like a spoiled and capricious child.

Oh Jerusalem, how long you wait for your love⁷, but you do not give it to Me, you do not give it to your God and Lord, you have turned away from Me, from your salvation, that day you will cry and regret it, you will cover yourself with sack and ash and do penance⁸, because you threw away and forgot in your life the only true God, One and Triune, who knocked on your door, loved you and died for you, was sent by the Father, for you and for you, but you forget him without stopping, no you believe in Him, you did not see the Light of the Holy Spirit that shone before you: in the eyes of the Nazarene, in His hands, in His Word; His voice anointed by the Spirit of God did not reach your ears because they were closed.

Oh My people, oh My Jerusalem, why are you so stubborn⁹, so obstinate? Let yourself be loved, let yourself be embraced, loved by My Love, that I am here for you, for your love, that I want to take you in My arms¹⁰ to the Kingdom of Love.

A lost and stubborn world, that is you, My people, who long for the salvation, for love, but you have been confused by those who speak and speak and confuse your mind and heart¹¹, look for Me in silence¹², in the peace of your heart and listen to My voice that I am calling you, that I do not stop calling you by your name, come, come to Me, and we will dine together¹³ and I will tell you about My love.

You are confused and perplexed by the Love of your Savior, and you do not want to let him into your heart, heart of stone¹⁴, hard as Flint, what will I have to do to break the stone of your heart and let the light of the Spirit of God? If I send you messengers¹⁵ of My Love you do not believe them, if I speak to your heart you do not listen to Me, if I leave you My Word written¹⁶ you do not read it, if I stay in the Tabernacle you do not come to see Me and talk with Me, if I am in the confessional to absolve you of your faults and forgive all your sins in a hug of love, you do not come or want to recognize your sins and your idolatry. What will I do with you, My child? If you send the calamity and pain in your life maybe you would look at the sky crying out My help and compassion and you would raise your arms to welcome My Love. What will I do? I just want your salvation and your love.
