

MESSAGE 67 JANUARY.1.2020

“A child has been born¹ to us: the Savior of souls, come to worship him². In Bethlehem of Judea³ the Savior of souls, come to worship him. In Bethlehem of Efrata in a cave among animals⁴, the Savior of souls, come to worship him. A shout is heard in Ramah, it is Rachel who refuses comfort because her children are no longer⁵; it is the courtship of the Lamb: the innocent saints, the blood of the first martyrs shed for Christ⁶: the Savior of souls, come to worship him. It is the story of Salvation that is written with the blood of the martyrs, of the innocent, the meek at heart, the poor⁷; the faint of heart do not understand it, they doubt it, do not believe it, but those with a clean heart, those who listen to the Lord, those who are attentive to His Word⁸ day and night, they believe, they rejoice and are filled of joy in the Lord, come to worship him.

It is not time, brothers, to doubt the signs sent to us⁹ by the Lord, who gives them to us by His Mercy, offered by the Savior of souls. It is time to look at the sky with hope, with joyful hope in His Coming¹⁰, in the Parousia of the Lord, in His Glorious Coming at the end of time, in His Second Coming; He has come and will come, and who is waiting for Him? Where are your hearts yearning to see the Lord, to be with Him, to be in Him? For, behold, the Son of man is coming, among clouds you will see Him, Glorious, He will come to you, to His holy people. He is already here, Glorious, He will come and you will see Him¹¹.

It is the time of Justice¹², children, the time of Love, you will see Me radiant as the sun and I will be before you, that day your hesitant hearts¹³ will tremble, those who were afraid of My Coming, will tremble, those who waited for Me with joy will be happy and will look to heaven with joy in their souls and hearts and will beat palms¹⁴ and be radiant as the sun, for the Light that comes from on High will illuminate their lives, their faces will be left radiant: the one¹⁵ who waits will enjoy, the one who does not wait will tremble.

It is the tragedy of My Holy Heart: the man whom I saved on My Cross does not wait for the Savior of their souls, does not wait for his Redeemer, forgot My Cross, My Salvation, refuses it, rejects it, is free to love, of wanting, of rejecting, but everyone who rejects the Salvation that I came to bring will be a prisoner of death for ever and ever¹⁶.

A new heaven, a new earth¹⁷, a Sun of Justice¹⁸, a Vergel that was a wasteland, a desert will flourish¹⁹ before you and it will be for you the Land of promise, but who is waiting for it?

Your eyes are full, saturated with sin, evil, blackness and restlessness. Your hesitant knees bend before the idols of this world, idols of mud and clay that do not look at you, they do not see you, they are nothing, they are lies and deceptions²⁰, children, they are like you: sinners and weak, in need of the same Salvation as you, but you look at them as gods and you venerate them; for they will not save you that day. Money, well-being, comfort are your goals, goals in a fragile life that will break at any moment before you and nothing and no one will prevent it.

You are full of fears, of concerns about being able to control, lengthen, improve your lives, but no one cares in the same way about the soul²¹, you do not even want to think about it, children, and one day you will be asked to account for your negligence, abandonment to My Holy Words, to the Word of God written from the past for you, to be Light in your walk²², nourishment in your weakness, rest in your effort.

The Word of Incarnate Wisdom for you, children, is before you every day and night: My Holy Gospel; but you listen to the voices of this world and promise happiness for yourselves, but days will come, oh Jerusalem, that the wolf will not graze with the kid but instead he will catch and kill the kid and everything will be desolation, the promises of God will come after a time of desolation, of bitterness, with blood shed for the evil of satan and his henchmen.

You do not read the Holy Scriptures, you do not wait for the Savior of your souls, you have fun and look the other way, and the religious wait anxiously: what? You may have read the writing²³, but it has not reached your hearts igniting on them the Fire of My Holy Spirit?

You live sad and gloomy, because you do not long for your salvation and do not wait for your Savior. The prophets²⁴ have been waiting for this moment for so long, and you do not know what it is to yearn for, to look to heaven asking the Sun of Justice to come to free this world from the evil and sin of satan and his hosts, no! You live with evil, you got used to living with it and you do not expect anything or anyone. You only live day after day waiting for everything from this world and in this world and you speak of the end as if the end were never to come, poor and blind! Children of the light who live in darkness²⁵ and have become accustomed to them and you live in them without waiting for the Light, the Day without sunset²⁶.

Children, wake up, wake up from the dream²⁷, from the mortal lethargy in which your souls are consumed day and night!

Look to heaven, wait for the God of Heaven, the Most High in Person; children, that your ancestors look at you from Heaven and suffer your abandonment to the hope of your salvation.

You have fallen asleep, children, awake, awake since you are of a tree that bears fruit, of a tree that gave martyrs, prophets, brave and hardened men and women in the service of the Lord; look, read the Holy Scripture: men and women who preceded you in this life²⁸, who fought, loved, lived and died with the tension of My Holy Spirit in each of their gifts of which they were depositories; angry and brave men and women who did not care about contempt, abandonment of this world, who offered their lives to the God of Heaven; Children, who are your ancestors!. What have you become, children? In weakness and meekness to this world, it has swallowed you alive, it has enslaved you, mute, inert and hopeless, it has taken your life, blood, courage, life and has left you dead and thus you live: dead and believe that you are alive.

Wake up, wake up Israel, people of the Lord, wake up that your Lord arrives! Risk your life, your hope, shake it off the mortal dream, let it revive in you. Wake up, get up now, it is coming, and you are asleep! You are dead in life, I hope you were dead, because that way you are neither alive nor dead.

²⁵ 1 Tes 5,4-5

²⁶ Rev 21,25

²⁷ Lk 21,36; Eph 5,14

²⁸ Heb 11,1-12,28

Learn from the bravery, the courage, the love, the zeal of the hearts that vibrated for the Lord, with the tension and faith of the men of the Lord.

Poor anesthetized sheep to whom the evil of satan has inoculated: you are dying more and more every day, and you do not realize; you live without living, without life, because death accompanies you day and night.

Wake up and live in My Holy Spirit²⁹! Men and women of God: it is time to shake off from the mortal dream, to lift your heads³⁰ to heaven, to raise your arms to heaven and await your salvation: to the Savior of your souls.

A time of blackness and desolation will appear in your lives, as predicted by My holy prophets, as I told you and is written in My Holy Gospel³¹: wait for it because it is already here.

Put on your sandals and take your staff, leave this world³² and light up your lamps, that it is coming, I am already here.

I will come to you and you will be before Me that Day³³, those of you who waited for Me every day will rejoice and those who wavered will tremble, those who did not wait for Me, you will see Me in your hearts and you will be before Me. The tabernacle of your heart will be filled with My Presence and the Light from Above will illuminate your life until that moment, your life will be before Me, prepare for that Day, because it is already here.

Days of desolation and blackness will come to you, but the Light of My Holy Spirit and the Strength of God will accompany you to go through the darkness united to your brothers; wait for it because it arrives, it is already here.

³³ Is 2, 19,21; Rom 2, 16; 1 Cor 1,8;4-5; Rev 6, 15-17

Do not forget your soul, it is in you and is eternal, your bodies are not, they will know death and the corruption of the grave, only your soul will fly to the Lord, do not worry so much of what will die instead be concerned of what has Everlasting Life and being in God, after the death of the body, it will return to your glorious bodies after the Resurrection.

Your soul, children, your soul! Who cares about having the lamps on³⁴? He who does not wait for Me, lives without expecting Me, he has his lamps off, even if he believes himself to be very Mine and says to Me: Lord, Lord, I will tell him: I do not know you.

Love is not loved, because it is not expected.

No one loves what they do not expect. No, children, you do not love Me because you do not wait for Me with burning desire in your hearts, you love the world more and your life.

You are dead, asleep, may love wake you up, because your lamps are not lit, they have gone out³⁵ with the breath of satan who does not want you to wait for Me, to believe that I come and do not delay³⁶; he wants you to be in the mortal dream, to quench your love³⁷, your faith in My Coming, your hope in being released from its chains.

Awake, children and light your lamps and live in the loving tension of My Holy Spirits because I am here, I am here, My people!.

Hallelujah, Glory to God.
