

MESSAGE 75 AUGUST.1.2020

«A voice is heard in the silence of your heart, it is the Master of Israel. Listen¹, heart of man, listen carefully, because that voice speaks to you, it addresses you, you are its interlocutor, it is referring to you, to your life, listen, listen to it, be brave to listen in the silence², dare to listen, close your eyes, be silent, he speaks to you, he is going to speak to you, he comes from above, he comes from heaven, he descends from heaven³ for you, he is the Master of Israel, he is the Master of the Law, he is the Master of Love. He died for you⁴, for your love, today he speaks to you, he speaks to you, be attentive because there is a word for you, for your life, for the world:

Come, son, come to Me, that the night is falling, it is falling over you, the darkness hangs over the world and also over your life, it is the night of the times and what to do? It is the darkness, the darkness that closes the soul and makes the heart tremble, that leaves man alone⁵, leaves him alone before God, before his existence, before his end; it is the darkness of the end of times, of the end of a time, of a history, of a finished world; it is the darkness that gives way to the Light, to the Light of Life⁶, to the Light of Love, to the Light of Eternity.

Look for the moment of silence, look for the right moment and I will teach you, I will teach you to live in the darkness that you live in, and in the Light that awaits you, but, son, it is time to listen to your Savior⁷, to attend to His Words.

Come, son, come tonight⁸, that I want to talk to you, I want to be with you, when the world is silent, look for your Savior, prepare an encounter with Him⁹, let yourself be looked at by Him, go to the appointment of Love, and I will teach you what Love is, the Love that remains¹⁰ beyond death¹¹, that lives forever.

I will speak to your heart¹², heart of stone and obstinate, but that upon the sound of My Words it will fall melted into my hands, by the Love of my Holy Heart. Let it happen, do not prevent your heart from opening¹³ to the soft dew of My voice; your heart is dry and in need of pure and clean Water, let it drink in the Water that gives Life, Eternal Life¹⁴.

The world needs you, but first you must live this encounter with Me, with your God and Lord: You must go up to the holy mountain and be there with Me, listen to My voice and take off your shoes before Me, because the land you walk on is holy ground, and then go down to your brothers, but only after being with your God and Lord you will be able to speak to your brothers about Me and not before, because, before your personal encounter with Me, you will speak of a God that you do not know, of a God that you have made with your feelings and imagination, but not of the real God, after being with Me, in the holy land where God lives, you will speak of your experience of love, of your experience of life, and your brother will see in you the face transfigured by the vision of God¹⁵, by listening to His Word¹⁶, by the vision that transfigures the soul and the heart; your face will shine like that of Moses¹⁷, and you will know that you have been with Me¹⁸, that you come from Me, that I, the Lord, have sent you to them, but not before, son, before this do not speak in My name, do not speak about Me, because you do not know anything about Me, and what you know cannot be sure that is the case. How to know about Me if you don't know Me? The people of Israel lived, loved and fought with their God, only in this way are the pages of the Holy Book of God written: Holy Scripture, and you are My People, but look for your own history in it, do not talk about what they have told you, that what you have been told moves you to want to know Me, to want to meet Me¹⁹, to dine with Me²⁰, to sit by My side and listen to My voice.

It is time for the knowledge of God, of the encounter with God, of savoring God in your taste, of touching your God with your heart and soul, because He touches you first, and when He touches you, you are touching Him; feel the chill of love on your skin, feel your tears run and be amazed and admire how much God loves you, who lowers himself for you, who dies for you, who seeks you, and seeks the encounter day and night with your heart, who wishes to touch your heart of stone, blind and obstinate, let your God and Lord love you, let Him, son.

Tonight I ask you for your love, I ask you for a meeting of love, prepare yourself for him, follow the footsteps that I have left for you, so that you find Me, the footsteps of My Word, of My Gospel, the footsteps of My Love in the Cross where I died for you. If you follow My footsteps you will find Me, they are in Holy Scripture²¹, they are on the Cross²², I am in the sacraments²³ waiting for you.

Come, look for Me and I will meet you, I will tell you, son, take off your sandals, because I am here and you are treading on holy ground where your God²⁴ dwells, and a voice will thunder in your heart of stone, and the stones will fall broken, and will leave a heart of flesh²⁵ before your sight, a heart that will bleed with My pain and My love for you.

Come, son, come to Me and you will know the Love of a God for you, and you will be able to speak to all of Me, of My Love, because you will have already seen your God, you will have heard your God, you will have felt your God, and the taste of My Love and My presence will accompany you forever, you will live from that love; even if only once in your life you climbed this holy mountain where your God lives, your whole life will live from this encounter, which you will remember in every prayer meeting, every time you look for Me in the sacraments, your life will already be impregnated by the fire from the bush, which will never be extinguished in you²⁶, and you will live with the desire for eternity, where there will no longer be an encounter with your God, because everything in eternity is a continuous Presence, together you and Me.

Children, I tell you, I am telling you: it is time, there is no more time; you must approach Me as you never done so before, because the road signs will disappear, the persecution will intensify, and hard time and calamity will be established forever, until I return in Glory and Majesty²⁷.

It is the time of encounter, it is the time of witness, it is the time of truth, when everything will be darkness; children, be a light to others, speak to them of My Love, of Me, but first come to meet Me, and I will tell you what you must say, what you must do, I will walk by your side, and I will never leave you²⁸.

It is the time of the encounter: you and I, when everything will be darkness, and I will make you light, and you will be light, because you will reflect My presence, because you were with Me, and you will seek eternity like the sparrow seeks the highest branches²⁹.

You do not want to walk with a memory of others who tell you about Me, you do not want to know Me with the knowledge of others³⁰; make use of that path that you are shown to find me. »

²⁹ One might think, in our ignorance of the life of birds in their various species, that sparrows do not seek such heights to live or to rest, but by learning about this, we discover that the Creator of the world knows very well what he is saying.
