

MESSAGE 77 OCTOBER.1.2020

«Truly I tell you that I will not drink of the wine again, until I drink it in the Kingdom of My Father¹.

Listen, children of My Father, listen on this night² of love, because the wicked traitor approaches this world with perverse intentions, which only My Father God knows, and on this night I warn you, because nothing will be left, no stone upon stone³ in this world of sin, and blood will flow bathing this land⁴ of sin. You do not notice his movements, because the one who will usurp the throne of Peter is already in this world, and with his harangues the false prophet will "christianize" this world, causing you to forget the true Christ⁵, Son of God, and in his place evil will "clothe" him in falsehood and the greatest lie that ever existed. The world will be deceived⁶, because it does not know Me, daughter, and it is easier to deceive when the true knowledge and love of Jesus Christ is not in the heart of man; how can you find yourselves deceived, if you do not know the object of the deception? Therefore, daughter, tell them about Me, about My love tonight. Let your pen write the truth of a God, who has to be served by you, to unravel the entrails of the evil that stalks you.

In an unbelieving world, where only the having and possessing counts, the living happily, the day by day, as you say, who thinks of eternity, the true sense of existence, the beyond? Do not be fooled⁷, I say to you, but how difficult it is when the world does not know Me, because it has fled from Me, I knock on every door of your hearts and you do not open to Me.

⁷ Heb 13, 7-9

A world deceived by the perfidy of Satan, the devil, which will clothe itself with the greatest deception and fraud that ever existed⁸, and the unbelieving world, which does not know its God and Lord, will believe it. What sadness in the heart of God, for the terrible misfortune that is going to devastate this world of sin!

The bells of Bethlehem ring on the horizon: it is Jesus of Nazareth, who arrives in this world of sin with the scepter and the crown, clothed with Glory and Power⁹ to rule this world of sin. And while this prophecy is revealed to the world, the world sleeps¹⁰ and dreams of the banquets¹¹ of the rotten fruit, which will be its food under the guise of succulent food.

Do not waste the time you have left, for the devil and his minions do not stop devising malicious plans¹² that are already here. Do not waste the hours that you have left as a gift from the Father, to put on your festive dress¹³, because days will come, oh Israel, that time will rush into your lives, those who live on your borders, and you will not have time to buy oil, so that the lamps are lit¹⁴.

It is a time of rigor that begins, it is a time of weeping and lament¹⁵, because the time has come.

Pray for the Pope, the one I put on the throne of Peter, for you will feel his absence, when he is snatched from him by the forces of evil.

Unveiling the malevolent plan¹⁶ is announced in Holy Scripture, but your minds are dull¹⁷ by the liquor of this world, and you do not know how to understand the signs of the times¹⁸, which, clamoring, are before you. Later you will lament and cry and cry out to heaven, but, children, I will tell you: I have warned you month after month, I have given you prophets who announced the time to come, but you have not believed them, because your heart does not want to believe. If you had let him, your heart would have been opened to My Word and to My plan of love.

Tonight I want to reach your hearts, and tell you, children: the time to come is here, prepare your lamps and your hearts, be strong and courageous of heart, because it is coming, the great calamity¹⁹ that will devastate this world²⁰ is here. And you will say ‘prophet of calamities’, and you will say it, because you do not know how to understand the truth that you have before you, that is before your eyes: it rains and you say that it is sunny and not a single drop falls. This is how you are living the signs of the times, which I put, clamoring, before your eyes. What to do with this people, who does not want to see? I will give you the light, the light that will blind your eyes, but will open your hearts and understandings²¹.

Wayward and conceited children, who know the Holy Scriptures and do not live them²², neither understand them, nor expect them.

My people, people of the Lord, what have you turned into your journey through this world? In seats of power and command and false clothes, because if you clothe yourself with Me, I am not there when you deny communion²³ to My children, if it is not according to your human and worldly criteria. You do not let them believe in My coming, in My arrival in this world, because you prevent them from anxiously waiting for the one who appears at the door every day to see if the Beloved²⁴ comes.

²⁴ Song 2, 9

Shameless children, who raise the Chalice and call yourselves Mine, but do not risk your own blood in defense of the unborn children, who die in the wombs of their mothers.

You despicable children, who are swallowing a camel²⁵, and criticize and you are so angry about the speck²⁶ that My children have in their lives.

Ungrateful children, that I put you in front of My Church to love and shepherd My children, not so that you may be their judges and executioners. Be shepherds and shepherd My flock²⁷, because I come and will ask for an account of My flock.

He who is free from what I say here, let him throw the first stone²⁸, and I will tell you:

When were you jailed or beaten for yelling 'murder' at the ambo of your parish?

When were you marginalized for denouncing incest, adultery and all kinds of humiliations committed even within My Church?

When did you risk not giving communion, My Holy Body, to the hyenas²⁹?

When did you give your goods, and were you hungry and cold to take care of My children, the poor and disinherited of this world?

When did you favor with your protection My Word, the one that revealed the poor and simple³⁰ for the salvation of this world?

If you have no sin, throw the first stone: but if you are not mocked, beaten, insulted, and they hold you apart and crazy because of the Gospel³¹, do not throw it or it will turn against you that day, when you are before Me.

³¹ Mt 5,11-12; Mk 8,35

It is the whip³² of love and justice, of zeal for the souls of My Father; it is the whip of love and justice, the one that leads you to the cross. Are you willing to die³³ crucified or do you hide in your seat of power and bonanza?

Children of men, look at your path, and if it is not Mine, go to the source of Mercy and start a new journey, because I have arrived, I am here.

Wake up, children, wake up.»
