

MESSAGE 80 JANUARY.1.2021

««Heavens distill the dew¹ that your Savior comes to rule the earth² with his staff of command³.

A wicked world that has not loved its God and Lord, awaits its Savior to free him from injustice and from the perverse hand⁴ that makes him sin. Hurt hearts, wounded by the injustice and crime of this world, await their Savior. Who will help them to wait? Who will tell them Who they are waiting for? Who will warn⁵ them of the coming of their Lord?

The heart waits for the deliverance of God, but poor souls that do not know Whom they wait for and reject Who they wait for, but still their soul waits; anxiously awaits the salvation of this world, a world of sin that does not know the Love of God. Who will tell them about the Love of the only true God⁶ so they will stop going after substitutes for Love and Truth?

Here I am Israel, to talk to you about My Love, to tell you Who He is that speaks to you month after month in the ear of your heart, rude and harsh⁷ heart that does not want its God.

Come son, come to Me and listen to My voice and you will not regret that day; a day of rigor and justice for this world that has not loved its God.

My voice challenges you, My dear child and reveals what is there in your heart. Do not be scared or alarmed by what is in it, but listen to Me, keep listening to Me, do not let it be afraid, because of what you feel when you listen to Me. Hearts are exposed when you listen to Me. Hearts are exposed when they hear the voice of God but it is necessary, son, that you live that suffering, only then you can heal.

The world hears substitutes of My voice, voices that give away their ears, feeding their instincts and their perversion and man falls into their ties because he is inclined to lust and the weakness of his will, because of all the sin in his life; but now, now is the time to change because there is no time, time is running out, time has ran out, time of peace and prosperity. Now comes the time of tribulation⁸.

A world turned red by sin, turned red by the blood shed by the henchmen of the devil Satan, innocent blood⁹ that bathes the earth and there are guilty of action and omission. As guilty is the one who infers the crime as the one who consents to it, sleeping consentors who only watch and wake up from their sleep to satisfy their low desires and instincts. Man has become his own enemy because of the sin that appears again and again in his life. Now is the time to change or there will be no more time.

I am going to send hunger to the earth, hunger for justice and salvation, hunger for love and peace, to see if in this way man will convert to Me and raise his soul to God.

Only the man oppressed by suffering raises his soul to God; oppressed by external or internal sorrows. The satisfied man of this world gives away his life in the pleasures and desires of this world and forgets God.

The Great Tribulation will bring you a hunger for God, a hunger for salvation, a hunger for the heaven promised by your God. Only then can you change because man is stiff-necked and his heart stubborn and incredulous, subject to passions and follies.

I come children, I come to rule the earth with justice and love in a world of peace and tranquility: The Reign of Christ¹⁰. But first I must cleanse this land of sin; This is what the Great Tribulation is for, to put each heart before Me and before its Savior, purify your soul and your heart is cleansed from all the evil of this world of sin that has stuck in it, embedded in so many hearts that live in evil and in the lack of love for their God.

Who will know and love Me while living in their instincts and desires? Who will love Me if he only thinks and lives for the things of this world? Who will lift his soul to heaven if he does not need his God? Well children, for this comes the Great Tribulation, so that man knows and loves his God, from his suffering and in his pain for the pains of this life. It is a necessary purification for the soul, without it the world would be lost in its entirety, no one would be saved and the heart of man would succumb to the misery of the world, he would drown in his own sin, but suffering and pain raises the gaze at the Father God, hungry asking for help, salvation, justice and love. How hard is the heart of man who without sorrow and pain does not listen to his God, or love Him or pay attention to Him.

I come children, and what will I find on earth¹¹? I want well-disposed¹² hearts, washed in the crucible of purification, yearning for My Salvation, with their gaze fixed on Heaven.

Now is the time or there will be no more time. Time has ended, the crimes and evils of this world have filled the cup and it is full¹³; there is no time, the arm of God will fall relentlessly on this world of sin. How many offenses to the Heart of God! How much ingratitude to His Sacrifice on the Cross! What a lack of love among men¹⁴: vermin men and executioners of one another! The cup has been filled and there is no time, everything begins, everything is about to begin children of men, the cup has been filled, the arm of God falls on this land of sin and shame.

Put yourselves safe and secure from the inclement weather in My Holy Heart. The blood that bathes the earth¹⁵ will be cleansed with the great Purification; only in this way will man look up to heaven and cry out for My Salvation. Listen, children of men, these words that announce to you the great liberation from this world of sin and be glad and rejoice because your liberation¹⁶ is near.

Flee from evil, get away from it, live in My Holy Gospel; you have My sacraments, those that heaven left you for your salvation. Feed yourselves with My Body and My Blood and you will be saved¹⁷ from the infernal enemy, but woe to him who knowingly¹⁸ receives Me in grave sin! Because there will be no salvation for him. Anyone who mistreats My Holy Body¹⁹ and spills My Blood because of their lack of love and cruelty will be guilty of death.

You are warned, children, of the moment that inexorably approaches your life. Put yourselves safe, secure, with a clean soul and your longing eyes waiting for the Son of man.

Farewell, children, it is time for prayer and repentance for all the sins of your life, waiting for the Son of God who comes, who comes to rule the earth, but before, children, you will see Me and be before Me²⁰ in the Particular Judgment of your souls; I wait for you in your heart.»
