

MESSAGE 18 DECEMBER.7.2015

Heaven and earth will pass away, but My Words will never pass away¹. There will not be a place where the resounding of My Words do not reach. Every corner of the world will be filled of My Word because the Lord, the God of the Universe, has spoken to all the Earth².

All the seas and oceans are filled with His Love and His Word.
All the sons of men shall know His Word.

Heaven and Earth will reveal His Glory, because the Lord of the Universe looks down to the Earth. He has put its eyes in Zion and the world is full of His Love and His Word.

Oh children of the Most High, small children of the Lord, the hour of your liberation has come, because the world knows His Word. His Name is known in Heaven and on Earth. Every being who breathes³ answers to the Name of the Lord and goes after Him. All has been accomplished. What are you waiting for to go after him? Do not wait until it is too late, because time will overwhelm you and then there will be nothing you can do. It is late children and yet you have not prepared your luggage; It is time to begin. When you see signs in the sky, prepare yourselves, because the Lord arrives to establish a Kingdom⁴ of Justice and Love as you have never known because of your wickedness.

It's time to envision the events that arrive inexorably, and still think you have time to think in the morning. No children, there is no time to think about what is not ahead, instead think of what is coming over you. Prepare yourselves with My sacraments and go to the source of My grace that has been open to you by the love of a Father⁵ that you can not imagine, since no one knows Him better than the Son, but I, children, have let you know Him through My works⁶ and My bloody Sacrifice on the Cross⁷.

The Eternal Father has opened the doors of heaven, so that the whole earth be flooded with His Mercy.

Children, be grateful and fight in this time of grace, so every man is cleansed of all his sins in that river of Grace and of Love, the crystal and clear water of my Holy Spirit. And be able to gain access to the Glory of Heaven.

Heaven is expectant, prayerful and has his eyes on you, since heaven has never poured out this much mercy in the world as it has now, in this time of grace. That none of My children remain idle seeing the events occurring, but, like strong soldiers⁸ and courageous fighters, prepare to work for the salvation of your brothers. Spread these messages of the Mercy of God, and let them be known for the greater Glory of God and the good of souls. You take them to your brothers, and I will open their hearts to the light of My grace to give fruits of conversion and, one day, everything will be paid to you in heaven.

Oh children, how ungrateful you are! I cry out to you asking for your collaboration with the work of redemption, and you are still stopped in your conversations. No children, you do not pay attention to these words coming to you from My heart, go to work in this year of mercy as if your life was in it, yours and that of your brothers. I already announced to you this year of grace⁹, through My dear girl Isabel, now I ask you for your help so that it should be a year of redemption, of mercy for many souls who have not known My Love, My Salvation, and are still wandering by ways of sin and eternal damnation. Love your Savior, demonstrate your love for Me, loving and fighting for the salvation of your brothers, for whom I have died in the cross and have spilled My Holy Blood¹⁰. Help me so that My spilled Blood bears the beautiful fruit of the Redemption¹¹.

It is time to walk through the darkness, but do not tremble, do not be scared, because My Merciful Love accompanies you. Your strength is in my Holy Spirit¹²; invoke Him and He will help you.

I wait for you children, in every brother who still does not know My messages. I wait for you children, in every soul that still does not know My Salvation. I wait for you in his heart, imprisoned by his sins, come to liberate Me of his sins and of his errors with your love for Me and for him.

Do not leave for tomorrow your chores in My harvest since the time has ended and there is still much work to be done¹³.

Days of darkness will come, when the prince of this world will release all his anger on this world, which has been taken prisoner by him and all those who support his plans of terror and evil. Oh children, help Me to liberate your brothers of his claws and diabolical plans of destruction and evil. Do not delay, because time will come to its end and one day you will lament of the many of My children who have not been saved from the claws of evil by your negligence and lacking in obedience to My orders in these messages that I make you come through My Mercy.

A wave of evil will extend all over the world, as there has never been. Be prepared, vigilant¹⁴, because you will have to save the souls that are without time; and shelter yourself at the same time.

The events will happen so quickly that, if heaven will not help you, it will not give you time to react. But now I warn you, and My words come to your hearts. Courage children, go forward children that the time of glory, of My glory, is about in your lives and you will be saved by the Blood of the Lamb¹⁵.

One day I said to you that when I finish preparing a dwelling for you in heaven I would come back for you to take you to heaven with Me¹⁶. Children, My Words are fulfilled! They have been fulfilled for this generation, which has become pasture for Satan and have prisoners, many souls chained to him for which I, your God and Lord, died on the Cross for.

How many tears shed by My Mother for you, children, who are prisoners of the most cruel enemy of My Salvation. Now, son, you that read these words, leave evil and sin and come running to look for your liberation, your salvation, come to the source of My Mercy and one day I will take you with Me to Heaven, to the Kingdom of My Father that I have promised in My Cross¹⁷ for you.

Listen to Me, son, out of compassion and come to the sacrament of forgiveness so that your soul is washed in My Blood¹⁸.

You, son, that read My Words and know how much evil is in your life, in your soul, get ready quickly to come to the source of My Grace, because there I wait for you to give you all My love and My blessing, encircle you in my arms and, and when the moment of desolation comes to this earth, come get you and take you in My arms to Heaven that awaits you.

Oh son, I will never get tired of warning you about the evil and of giving you the good of My Love and of My Grace where your eternal salvation is.

Where is My Glory? In your salvation, children. Hurry that the time ends and there begins a new world where there will reign peace and justice, love and order. Everything will be new¹⁹. because this world with all its evil will pass.

Listen to me, son of My entrails, son of My Cross and of My Salvation, and do not complain to Him who gave you the life and waits for you in heaven for an eternity of love.

How long I have waited this moment, to put and end to so much evil and suffering that ravages the Earth. But everything is in the hands of My Father²⁰, of My Holy Father, that arranges everything and takes it to Salvation in the infinite knowledge of His Holy Spirit.

It is not a time to wait looking at the sky, it is a time to work.

A new world awaits you; Open the doors to the Lord, help Me clean this land of so much evil poured out by the son of evil and perversion, flee from him holding on to My Cross. My Cross is your support, your only support for the time that inexorably has started: The end of the time of this world, which has already spilled its last drop of evil.

A trumpet²¹ is in the horizon. It is prepared to be played in the precise moment of the last salvation. Listen to its sound and prepare yourselves, because my angels have received orders for your liberation and salvation from this perverse world, whose sole owner is satan.

My Kingdom is not of this world. I wait for you children for a world of love and of peace.

Let nothing disturb you. except the loss of your soul and the loss of the souls of your brothers and sisters.

This is a last warning, since the evil of the prince of this world will prevent My warnings and My messages.

My angels are prepared, heaven will be opened and the resounding of trumpets will mark and indicate the redemption of this world. For now mercy rains on this world, bathe your souls in the sweet dew of My baptismal water and you will be safe²².

²⁰ Mt 24, 36

²¹ Mt 24, 31 ; Rev 8, 1-11, 19

My Holy Spirit is in you²³, listen to Him and obey Him.

Heaven and earth will pass but My words will not pass. They have reached all corners of the world. Your liberation is approaching, be attentive and vigilant because the destruction of this world by satan is not the end, but it will give way to the establishment of My Kingdom in this world.

Listen to My Words that I bring to you by the instrument chosen by My Mercy, now when you can still do it, since I already said to you that one day you will want to find these messages and will not be able to, since the prince of this world will prevent everything that comes from Me, so that you could not save yourselves from his infernal claws.

It is still a time of Mercy; make use of this time of grace that is the last opportunity for a perverse and ungrateful world with the Salvation of its God, who bought all the souls with the price of His Blood²⁴. But in how many have failed the Salvation that the Son of the Man came to bring to this world!

Help the Pope in this year of Mercy. Help your pastor to bring together all the sheep of the House of Israel.

Oh children, soon I will be with you! Alleluia! Prepare yourselves for that day is approaching.

Warn your brothers, warn My children, for whom I spilled My Blood²⁵.

The Father looks at you intently from heaven and awaits you in an eternity of Love..

Glory to God in Heaven, and on the Earth peace to men who the Lord²⁶ loves! Do not cease to sing and live these words in your life.

Farewell children, work and wait for the Kingdom of God. Alleluia.
