

MESSAGE 19 JANUARY.7.2016

When the night approaches, get up¹, My people, that your salvation has come. The salvation that the Son of Man² comes to bring to this world. Gathered together, clap your hands³, because your salvation has arrived. One day I said to you that it would come for you, children, and I would take you to the Kingdom of My Father⁴, then, children, prepare yourselves to direct your steps to this new world, to this new Kingdom that awaits you.

Let nothing trouble or disturb you, dear children, more than your salvation; the rest leave everything in My hands that I will take care of it⁵. Or do you not trust me?

How long, Israel, I have waited for the time to return to you! The hour has come, prepare yourselves dear people of Mine, prepare with everything that I arranged in this world for your salvation, because there comes the Son of Man to govern the Earth⁶.

Neither get alarmed nor be scared, since I Am with you and I will never let you go⁷ out of My hand. You Be faithful to my commandments; I wait for you in My Sacraments of love and of peace. Fill yourselves with the happiness of My Grace.

A well-disposed people I will find if you earnestly fulfill My Orders and are faithful to the voice of My Grace, to the voice of My Holy Spirit who lives in you⁸ and encourages you unceasingly: pure and crystalline Source of Grace and Love, forever. Amen.

You are sad My people, since My coming puts you in front of yourself and you are afraid. Do not be afraid, you must only be afraid of the one who pushes you to eternal damnation⁹ every day, making sin agreeable and irresistible. Say: No!, with all your strength and will to the one who wants to lose your soul; but instead come to Me that I wait for you to melt in an eternal hug with you, My people and to live together eternally in the Heaven of My Father.

Oh My people, if you knew how heaven has been preparing for My arrival to this world. Everything is ready and I need you, I need your collaboration to redeem this world of sin and evil. If you only knew how valuable you are in my eyes¹⁰ you would stand up like the Phoenix bird¹¹, which rises from his ashes and flies; flying high, since life is in him. This is the way I want you and need you. Stop looking at your things so much and throw yourselves to help Me knowing that you are valuable, unique and full of life by the Mercy of God; and stop lamenting your poverty and inability. Your guest is My Holy Spirit¹² and God can do it all in you if you are faithful to my commandments and keep your soul in God's grace. Anyone that is filled with My Grace has in his hands the power of the Holy Spirit¹³, since He lives in you and only seeks your salvation.

Be channels of grace for your brothers, allow me to come to them through you.

It is late and the adverse circumstances of a world that begins to agonize want to intimidate you, but do not allow it, since I said to you that I need you like strong soldiers hardened in the battle, not fearful or distrustful. Courage that I need you brave.

Why do you worry so much for the things of this life, if this world will pass with all of them? No children do not waste so much energy in vain things that will have no future. Spend your energies on looking for My Grace and on helping your brothers to find it in their lives.

In this Year of Mercy¹⁴ I need apostles of My Mercy that irrigate this world of My voice and My Word, be brave¹⁵ and daring, and entrust themselves in My Holy Spirit that will fill them with gifts and charismas¹⁶ to bring the victory of My Reign to this lost world.

Courage children, do you think I was going to leave you alone and poor to fight in this world against the evil of satan? No children, You still do not know Me! I will enrich you with the power and the glory of My Holy Spirit¹⁷ to fight by My side in this final battle that leads My Blessed Mother to who you must look and love, since She is the radiant Star that My Holy Father has given to you so that the Light of My Grace be with you.

Encourage your brothers to read these messages of Love and Mercy. One day you will feel the joy and gratitude of my Sacred Heart for bringing My far away and lost children.

Oh Israel, my people, how close is your liberation!¹⁸ Listen to these words that I direct to you today and don't forget them while you live, because once I speak, I will not speak again to the one who does not want to listen to Me.

You will see the Son of Man descending from heaven in a cloud¹⁹ and the world will be filled with the joy of the Holy Spirit but before this you must suffer and refine your souls in the Great Tribulation that is imminent, and in some places has already begun.

Pray for the Pope, since he is a target of evil and of those who help its plans. And oh children!, where has evil infiltrated! In the place that was never reserved for him, but that he coveted for ages since it is the Throne of God in this world. Pray and offer fasts for him because he will suffer much, for you and in his own flesh, evil and sin that nests and hides in this world, but that it is discovering itself as it has never been able to do it before, until it is completely visible in the eyes of the world. Blind eyes²⁰ that are dull by the things of this world as to not see what they have in front.

Oh my people, heaven looks expectant to its children to help them; but, My people, allow yourselves to be help. Ask and begs your liberation and salvation, and open your heart to forgiveness and the mercy of a God who died for you in the Cross²¹ to give you the keys to the gates of heaven.

Oh My people, look at Me, look at your God and Savior and speak to Me. Tell Me what you want of Me, speak with Me and ask for the Grace of My Holy Spirit²².

The time approaches, the time of My Glorious Arrival to liberate to this world of the claws of satan.

I love you and I need you, dear friends, dear children of My Soul. My Father looks at you from heaven and waits for you to give you an Eternal Kingdom of Love by His side.

How long I have waited this moment and it has arrived. I will dry your tears and I will give you a new look; I will end with the injustice and wickedness, with the terror and impiety; and fill everything with a new Light²³, radiant, where my children live in peace and tranquility. Where they will feel My presence day and night, where everything is according to the plans with which My Father created this world²⁴, and everything became perverted and marred by the cunning and full of evil serpent that corrupted My dear children²⁵. Now everything will begin and My children will have washed the stain of in their souls in the Water of My Holy Spirit. And bathed and purified in My Blood shed²⁶ by Love on the Cross, wearing white linen²⁷ and sing and clap their hands in honor of their only God and Savior.

Glory to God in heaven and on Earth love and order will reign, everything will be filled with the Gloria of God, dear children, but until this culminating moment of the history of this world happens you have to work and suffer. Get ready to do so. Do not fight with another person²⁸, fight with the evil that comes out of hell. For that reason arm yourselves with the weapons of the Holy Spirit²⁹, only in this way you will be able to save your souls and those of your brothers.

Wash your stains, purify yourselves with prayer, fasting and sacrifice and pray, pray without seacing³⁰, night approaches full of nastiness to lose My children. Even the elected in My love must be rigorous and vigilant of the state of their soul since they will have to suffer and fight.

Nothing is made, each day is made, but do not be afraid because I, Jesus, your only God and Lord, I am with you and will not abandon you. Could a mother leave her newborn child? Well, I would not abandon you³¹ and have recorded you in the palms of My hand, dear children of My Soul, children of My Passion.

Go to the confession often.

Renew your baptismal promises.

Recite the Creed and wait for the great day that is to come.

Work children, work in My harvest³². My love is with you and it covers you of tenderness and Peace.

I protect you children, put your trust in Me, trust in My love. Amen. Amen.

Nothing will be as before, everything will change. Get ready for what is coming. I do not abandon you children, do not abandon Me and you will be safe. Put your brothers in safety they need you in this Year of Mercy³³. Fight, fight for the Kingdom of God in this world, that arrives. Alleluia.

Do not be afraid, I, Jesus, I am with you and do not release you from My hand. I need you children. Work for Crown of Glory that does not wither³⁴.

I am your Shepherd³⁵, and take care of My sheep. I know you and I will not let even one get lost of those whom the Father has entrusted³⁶ to Me.

I encourage you and love you dear people of Mine.

The rain will fall down of heaven, the rain that will clean this world of all evil. Take shelter when this moment comes. Understand children understand and read the Sacred Scriptures because it is the time of rigor.
