

MESSAGE 28 OCTOBER.7.2016

They will come from the East and from the West¹.
There will be no place on Earth where My Preaching² would not be heard. All will come because they will be called in the Name of Jesus. You will drag your chains but you will be punctual to the appointment that you have before the Lord. Everything will be silent that day. Not even the crying of the child will be heard, or the singing of the maiden, the young people will not dance, nor it will be a time to laugh and to dream in a world that will be summoned in the Name of Jesus to gather around the Pastor³. My flock⁴ shall be convened; I will gather all my sheep because it is the day of the Lord⁵, the Day of Justice Justice will fall down in abundance on this Earth of sin, full of filth and ingratitude towards the Only God and Lord of all men.

Oh Israel, the time will expire, the time is fulfilled. Your God will come, who you waited for and did not reach your heart because it was perverted with other gods and with the pride of idolatry. You were left blind even though you had the Light in front of your eyes. People who wait for the Savior, who came to you and you, did not discovered⁶ Him in your obstinate and lost heart, now is the time to open your eyes, to open your heart and see your Lord. You will see the Son of Mary⁷, the Son of the carpenter⁸ before you and you will recognize your sin, your obstinacy and your blindness; your sin will be forgiven with the dew of Grace when in your heart you return to the humility of the holy prophets of the saints that lived beside you and recognized the Savior of all men that came to you, My people, He chose⁹ you from among all nations to be His people, to be born of you¹⁰ and to shed His Blood¹¹ in your Blessed Land by the design of the Eternal Father.

Oh children, that there comes your Salvation, the Bread of Life¹² to your squares and streets. Treasure hidden in the Tabernacle and in your hearts. Now you will see Him in a Day of Justice as there has not been and will not be. Prepare your hearts because I arrive, I come to you on a day of rigor and Mercy.

The world is arrogant, proud and conceited, has everything within reach but rejects the most sacred and holy; his God. And that sin will be the cause of and intense purification in your hearts, children, because no one can be saved without the purification required by My Justice¹³. Purification heals you and frees you, cleanses and restores the holiday dress of your baptism that you lost by your airily and sin, obstinacy and concupiscence.

Do not forget My Holy Love when I speak to you. Do not forget all the benefits that I have given you in your life because a grateful soul recognizes more easily, through his humility, the Giver of all goods.

Light your lamps¹⁴, approach the door and wait. Look at the sky and wait. Wait for the Spouse of your soul to come. Do not waste this time that you have left, My people, and set out on the way because I am near, at the door. The Day of Justice arrives; the Day of Love and Mercy are approaching. Put on your dress of gala and party and wait for the opportune time, for the appointed Day, the appointed time to be before the spouse of your soul.

Weep in the silence of your room for your sins, for your offenses to the Love of loves, the Love of your souls, the love of your lives for having seriously offended the Heart hurt by the spear¹⁵ of the centurion who opened the wound that saves the world.

It is not late to start, but it is too late to wait. Understand, children, in these words that I say to you.

Do not delay on doing all the duties that your Holy priests, enlightened by the Holy Spirit, set you on your path to take you to Me. Do not be distrustful of those who are at My orders, at My service, and My Holy Spirit guide them so that they can guide you and take you up to Me in that blessed day of rigor with your souls clean by the sacrament of Penance. It is not time to be suspicious of who I have placed at the head of your lives with the crosier and the staff that he holds by his ministry. Be docile and humble and do not let yourselves be drag by the cold and inconsiderate thoughts that Satan puts in your minds to move you away from the way of salvation that is before you.

Distinguish My holy priest by his faithfulness to My Commandments¹⁶ and to the Holy Gospel. No one who corrects or amends My Word can hold the Ministry of the Good Shepherd¹⁷ with you, do not listen to them and do not listen to the one who holds the priesthood to point out to you a path that goes against My Commandments and against the Word Revealed.

The holy priest is unworthy to live the holy mysteries, but his docility to My grace makes him pastor among you. The one who disobeys My Mandates and does not celebrate with dignity and the due respect My Holy

¹⁵ Jn 19, 34

¹⁶ Ex 20, 1-21

¹⁷ Ps 23 ; Jn 10, 1-16

Mysteris is not a pastor he is wolf among you; flee from him and his teachings.

You will recognize My holy Priest by their loyalty and fear to the God of the Universe. My Holy Body in their hands is protected and guarded in its slightest particle. The irreverent priest curses My Name when it does not take care and puts in danger¹⁸ the Holy Body of Christ, and one day his sin will make him squirm in pain before the Justice of My Father.

Do not receive communion in your hand as you put in danger the particles that detach from My Holy Body. Receive communion in the mouth with reverence and dignity, your souls washed and purified in the sacrament of Penance. Do not distract yourselves in the line of communion, do not talk to each other, prepare to receive the Lord as children grateful and overwhelmed in the immense mystery of My Grace.

No one knows more than his teacher¹⁹ but you all erect yourselves as teachers of the law. Do not! There is only one Master and I already told you that My Word is one and has no amendment with the passage of time and fashions.

There is no more freedom in conforming to the times but more sin.

Be faithful, children and bear the weight of the martyrdom that supposes you faithful to these words that are here written for your salvation. Do not worry about what people will say, accept the path of the Savior²⁰ of your souls; accept the path of pain and martyrdom.

Fashions and the demand to My faithfulness cannot go together; you must choose one or the other.

¹⁸ 1 Cor 11, 27

¹⁹ Lk 6, 40 ; Jn 13, 16

²⁰ Jn 14, 6

You will be criticized and cursed by this world²¹ because you do not conform to its ways of thinking and living, but do not worry children, that your reward will be great one day in heaven.

Kneel before the Tabernacle. Kneel before My Holy Body and he who cannot do it, make a sign of reverence at that moment; Children, not everything is acceptable, evil is attacking the Sacred Mysteries as has never been able to do so.

How will you stand before Me if you despise Me now, and you do not even look at Me when you enter the church? How will you be before Me, if you do not wash your sins in the sacrament instituted to free you from the heavy burden of the sins of your life.

I see immense lines in the world that approach to receive My Body but I do not see immense lines waiting to wash their sins in the sacrament of Confession.

I am here for you, My people, to warn you of the evil and sin. Do not ignore My words. Listen to My voice²². And do not let yourselves be defiled by those who follow fashions and opinions of sin. I come to save you, to take you by the road that leads to heaven, son listen to Me and do not scandalize of My words. Listen to My words with your heart open to the Grace that is in them. One day you will be glad of having read My words and put them into practice in your life.

Do not get discouraged by the resistance you will find in the world to live everything as I tell you here. Do not be discouraged, it is the way of the cross; embrace²³ it for love of your God and Lord.

Time is short and the path narrow²⁴, cover yourself with the weapons of My Holy Spirit²⁵ and do not faint, feed yourself with the Only Bread²⁶ that satiates and leads to Eternal Life.

²¹ Jn 15, 18-25

²² Jn 10, 27 ; Rev 3, 20

²³ Mt 16, 24

Do not be afraid of My words. Others before you heard them and lived them, accepted the way of the cross and today are in heaven for all eternity.

It is not late but there is no time to wait. Time is pressing and you should get underway.

Be faithful to My Commandments, I repeat, they lead you to heaven on the path to love.

Pray for those that persecute²⁷ you, for those that do not understand My words because their opinions are embedded in their hearts and follow the fashions and want to be accepted by this world of perdition.

Do not, under any circumstances, listen to those that do not follow My Word, never, because they show you the way of perdition, do not go by it. You be small, faithful and simple²⁸, there is no greater simplicity or greater humility than the one who follows My Mandates with joy accepting and submitting in peace to My Word. Be like the child who looks at his father and listens to him thinking that his father knows everything he is saying, do not be like the child who distrusts his father and questions every word he hears of him; a child still has no reasoning ability, you are children, how can you correct God? For you do it anytime you disobey My Word.

O children, O My people, how I love you²⁹. Today My words of love come to you, listen to them.

No one who mistreats by indignity, irreverence, My Holy Body is worthy to enter heaven for an eternity. Anyone who loves, cares protect and adore My Holy Body will triumphantly enter the gates of heaven to live eternally at the side of the Son of Man.

²⁶ 1 Cor 10, 17

²⁷ Mt 5, 44

²⁸ Mt 18, 1-4 ; Lk 10, 21

²⁹ Is 43, 4

How can you be in an eternity of love at My side if in this world you hurt me and make My Holy Father suffer and the Holy Spirit that dwells in you³⁰? For that you do when you do not treat with adoration and love My Holy Body exposing it to outrages and desecrations for your bad behavior and actions.

It is not a right; it is a gift to receive Me in Holy Communion. Educate your children in love and reverence when it comes to communion.

Only he who loves Me on earth will love Me in heaven.

Prepare like strong soldiers³¹ to obey My words being your heart like that of a child who loves and obeys his father.

It is time to live the faith³² with the rigor and meekness, fidelity and love you owe to your Savior.

The Eternal Father gave you the Bread of Life³³. I surrender to you, I put myself in your hands, I am defenseless before you so many times, do not harm Me since that sin hurts the Holy Heart of My Father and deeply hurts the Heart of the Mother who looks at you from heaven and says: He is my Son, the Son of my entrails, do not hurt His Holy Body. Love Him like when I held Him in my arms.

Love the Most Holy Body of the Redeemer. Do not expose him to derision and profanation. Love your Savior; relieve His sorrows for so many souls as they offend Him. Be you the refuge of My Holy Heart in a world that hurts Me and wound Me without stopping.

Do not follow fashions, fashions that lead to hell, follow the Word of God, which leads to Eternal Life³⁴. Amen. Amen.

I wait for you in Holy Communion, children, to console Myself in your hearts and your souls. Be My consolation, children, that I suffer in many souls when they receive Me in sin and with ingratitude, irreverence.

Be My consolation, souls of My Father.
