

MESSAGE 69 MARCH.1.2020

«INRI¹. And you, who do you say that I am?² Jesus, your King and Lord?³ The Son of the Carpenter and of Mary?⁴ Did Jesus existed? Is he a human creation, a leyend, a history of someone that existed? Who do you say that I am? The Son of the Eternal Father⁵ who came to save this world⁶ from the claws of the Evil one and died on the Cross for the Salvation of the souls? Who do you say that I am?; son, you that read these words of life and salvation, speak to Me in your heart, tell Me who is the one that speaks to you, who loves you, the one that died for you on a Cross.

Love your Savior, your King and Lord, and stay with Me in the silence of your heart and tell Me: Who am I to you? Who am I in your life? Talk to Me in the secret of your heart and join Me in the hidden of your room⁷, in the silence of the night, in the solitude of your soul, join Me son of My Soul and speak to Me of love, of your love for Him who died for you on the Cross, for Him who loves you day and night incessantly, for Him who stands before the Throne of the Eternal Father interceding⁸ for your soul, so that one day you may be with Me⁹ in the Kingdom of My Father.

Every day, every night, I constantly search for you in the hidden part of your life, in the silence of your soul, lost so many times; I look for you and ¹ “Early morning of March 1, 2020. I could not sleep and at a time I went to kiss the crucifix, when kissing him, my eyes were fixed on the poster: INRI, and the words of the Message began being INRI as the beginning of the Message. This time, and only time that has happened, the Lord did not utter the first word of the Message but made me see it. ” Isabel was not persuaded that it was the Message, but once she realized that it was the dictation of the Message she began to write and the Lord had to repeat it, because at the beginning she still did not have the notebook and pen in her hand, and in the repetition he already heard: «INRI. And you, who do you say I am?

I don't get tired of knocking at your door¹⁰, open it to Me, son, open to Me, I want to be with you, talk to you about My Love, listen to your pain and pour your tears into the silence and hiding of our conversation; give me your tears, give Me your pain, give Me your fears; look at Me, son, look at Me, look at Jesus of Nazareth¹¹, at the Nazarene, to the One who died for you on the Cross for love, only for love; sit by My side and talk with Me; tell Me your sufferings, your disbeliefs, your terrors in this life; tell Me what are your joys, what is your greatest joy, let Me see your smile, your clean and innocent smile looking at your Savior; let Me be with you, move to your house, your room, your life, let Me be in it with you, share it with you; Do not close yourself to Me, do not turn your back on Me, do not close your door, see that I am at the door of your life and call you, if you open to Me I will enter and have dinner with you, do not leave Me in the open, alone and abandoned, waiting at the door of your life, because one day I will leave and I will not be and you will regret not having opened the door, when I was still waiting for your love.

Children, how closed minded you are to My Words, how hard at heart, how stubborn in your disbeliefs; It is I, Jesus, and I call you by your name, I am here for you, son, to wake you from your blindness to the Light, to shake you and tell you: come, son, get up¹² already, that it has dawned, do not continue sleeping that the night is finished. Yes, children, the night is over, but you are still sleeping and you do not wake up to the Light, to the new day. Darkness was defeated by the Son of man, disappeared from the face of the Earth by the Light of the Resurrection of the Son of man, the Son of the Eternal Father.

Did the Light of My Resurrection enter your life or is it still waiting for Me in the empty¹³ tomb? Or do you not think that I have come to this world to save you, son, and that you have everything on My Cross? The Cross of the Son of man, ignominy¹⁴ and the cruelty in which the Son of God died: there you have everything for you, take it is yours, it is for you. You have life, do not desire death, you have love, peace, joy, comfort, do not live sad; you have the strength, the Power of God, the Majesty of God: learn to look at the tree of the Cross, the tree of Eternal Life¹⁵, there are all the fruits you need and even more.

Learn to look at the Cross, learn the value of suffering in obedience to the Father¹⁶ who is in heaven, learn to surrender for love, death to yourself to be wealth for all, to stay alone¹⁷ to be of all. Learn the science of the Cross¹⁸ by looking at Jesus of Nazareth nailed in it for you, son, for your love¹⁹, for your salvation.

In the moments of joy look at Me²⁰ on the Cross: they come from there; in the moments of sadness look at Me on the Cross: there is what sustains you in your pain: the Love of God nailed in it for you, for you, for your salvation, in it you join Me, do not reject it in your life, in it you are with Me, by my side, in Me; your pain becomes Mine, Mine becomes yours, it is a single pain melted²¹ in the Love of the Cross, together, you and Me. Have you ever felt My pain melted with yours, together you and I? It is because you do not look at the tree of the Cross²², you do not look at your Savior; and if you have felt it, you know what Love is.

²² Mt 27, 55-56

Learn the science of the Cross, look at your Savior in it and recreate your gaze in My gazing to you, in the same suffering of the Cross; feel looked by Me when you see Me on the Cross, let yourself be look by Me²³, let My gaze wrap you in the greatest Love²⁴ that you have ever known and that you will never want to leave anymore, because on the Cross love and pain together go, inseparable they are, because there is no Cross of the Lord without love, and the Love of the Cross is pain. All for you, son, on this night²⁵ of Love, all My Love and all My pain for you, but what more do you want from Me? Ah, I know, you don't think the Savior speaks to you; If these Words do not enter your heart, even if a dead person is resurrected, would you believe Me²⁶, because stronger is the Grace that these Words carry, than the miracles that I could do before you to believe Me, son.

One God, one Love, one Cross: that of Jesus Christ. Your cross is in Mine, united with Mine²⁷, let our crosses merge, yours with Mine, let our love be fused, yours with Mine, let our tears melt, yours with Mine, give me your heart and let it merge with Mine, your cross will be that of Christ²⁸, because yours will have disappeared in Mine, your love will be that of Christ because it will have merged with Mine, your sorrows will be Mine and your tears will be Mine, you will be another Christ on Earth, but for that, start by giving Me your cross and be one with Mine.

It is the science of the Cross, only those that are ahead understand it and who are the advanced ones? Those who believe in My Words and make them life, those who fight and strive to be Mine obeying My Mandates, My Words of Love that I address to you tonight, in the silence of the night by My dear daughter of My Soul, My instrument; pray for her and her spiritual director, because to take My Words to this world is to preach in the desert of hearts and suffer the ingratitude of the stubborn in the incredulity, to live the scorn, because nobody is more than his Master²⁹ and all the crosses that you live are one: Mine. I lived everything on My Cross, so that now you can live what My Father, in His design of Love and Mercy, allows for you.

It is late, the night of the times is approaching, get up and hold the weapons of faith, the shield of patience, what are the weapons of faith³⁰? Wisdom, the blind love that loves without seeing³¹, but lives in the heart and illuminates all life.

Children, learn from Me that I am Meek and Humble of Heart³², only the meek will inherit the Earth³³.

Do not worry so much about the future of events, that they will happen and they are already here, worry about being well fastened and holding on to My hand.

Hold on tight to My Cross, in it you will find the strength you need to defeat this world³⁴ with all its worries and fears; The Cross will make you brave and ardent soldiers of Christ.

Look at the tree of the Cross, the Savior of your souls was nailed³⁵ to it.

Let me look at you from My Cross, in the same suffering of the Cross, because you are Mine, son, I bought you at the price of My Blood³⁶ poured for you, for your love, for your Salvation.
