

«My chariots of fire will come and defeat evil<sup>1</sup>»

Isabel has received an extremely important message

«At dawn on August 12, 2021 the first Message of the Lord suddenly came to me, when he says "My chariots of fire will come and defeat evil.".

Seeing with the light I was receiving that the last message I received, number 87, was that end that announces the first Message of the Lord; and seeing at the same time in that light, that the Lord gave me, that there is an end of a time in the Messages. I saw this clearly.

After this, not afterwards, I have received these words within me: "It is the end of a stage, of a time foreseen by the Lord for the preparation of the people of God for this moment in the history of Salvation.

Let us prepare as we begin in this work of God with prayer and fasting, with the desire of the heart to receive what is coming in this work of God."

Isabel has received an extremely important message, because it makes us realize that these seven years of the "Messages of Mercy of the Holy Heart of Jesus", the "Messages of the Supreme Shepherd" as they are called by his followers scattered throughout the world, have turned seven years old last July and now a new stage begins.

An immediate preparation has been completed and a new one is now beginning. The one that opens is dramatically described in Message 87. The justice of God will erase evil from the face of this world, but, before peace reigns and the glory of God fills the earth, first the same forces of evil will be a purifying instrument, attacking the saints, cleaning them even more, and the blood of this handful of the chosen - laity, virgins, priests, bishops, recently converted - will be poured out as a reparative sacrifice and supplicating oblation to obtain the largest possible number of faithful witnesses of Christ that confess and praise His Justice and His Love.

In these first seven years we had already been experiencing the helplessness of our divided pastors and opining in a discordant way, creating confusion. The pastor who has chosen the Lord is no stranger to these tears and allows himself to be carried away, but, when he notices the evil that his lack of firmness has caused, it is too late to recompose the ecclesial body. Let us pray that there will be personal repentance in all.

We cannot ignore the Lord's recommendation to give ourselves to prayer and fasting. We were supposed to be doing it already. And now? Now it will be the battle not to complain, the battle of not letting ourselves be carried away by pessimism, of not repeating at every step in the commonplace of how bad the outlook is. And a rigorous fast to rebel against the scarcity of everything, which we will soon suffer, and that some have prophetically suffered for years. Although it may seem inhuman to us, that is the Will of God. We have sinned, we have to be purified. The tenderness of God will seem to have disappeared and at no time is this the case; That is why let us turn to his Mercy in the midst of the trial and to the maternal help of Mary, Queen and Mother of Mercy and we will not be disappointed.
