

MESSAGE 88 SEPTEMBER.1.2021

«A voice of an angel is heard in heaven, it is the prince of the heavenly militia, hear him, this is his voice. He comes to fight the forces of evil, the forces of the enemy of God. It is the voice of the archangel, the friend of God, the defender of God: Saint Michael is his name and carries the weapons to fight the enemy of God. Be his friend, ally yourselves with him, he will lead you to the final victory with the heavenly army, this is his voice: “Fight, fight the tricks of the enemy, Satan, the enemy of God, who has entered the holy Church of God, who wants to snatch the souls of the Holy Heart of God. Fight, fight¹, souls of the Lord”. Listen to his voice, ally yourselves with him, fight alongside him that he comes to you, he comes to your life, to your world, he will be with you and will not leave you; He has the orders from heaven to fight by your side, sing his song, sing his melody: "The melody of love for God and fight evil, the evil of Satan, the enemy of God."

I instruct you, My dear children, for your good and salvation. He will be at your side: feel his presence, invoke his name and his help and he will come to you in the evil circumstances in which you are in. He comes to this world², he has orders from God to fight and defeat the enemy³ of God, be his friends and ally yourselves with him. “Prince of the heavenly militia, assist the holy people of God in these times of tribulation in which the enemy of God⁴, Satan, wants to destroy the Grace and the Beatitude of the people of God. Do not allow it, friend of the Lord⁵, and fight by our side in this unparalleled⁶ combat, that the Virgin Mary assists you in battle⁷ by giving you the orders she has received from the Heavenly Father⁸, since She is the Mother of God and Mother of the holy people of God, and under her shelter God has placed His holy people as the leader of the final battle. Dear angel of God and obedient to the Heavenly Mother, shelter us under your sword and keep us from evil⁹”.

Implore the assistance of heaven, My dear children, it is the aid of heaven in this end time. Guard yourselves under the help of heaven, let no one be left in the open, for these are difficult times of evil and sin; no one should be left under the dominion of evil, because he will be lost; he will not be so strong that he can resist the push of evil in his life.

These are not times to rest and forget this hellish time; these are times of prayer and fasting and a strong love for Jesus Christ to the end.

Dear children, listen to me in this Message of love, that I only want your love and salvation¹⁰.

You see the times run to the end, kneel before the Lord¹¹ of the History and ask for his love and his protection or no one will be able to help¹² you.

I love you, dear children, listen to Me and fulfill My Mandates, I love you in an Eternal Love and I need you as strong soldiers in this final battle. Be faithful and loyal to what you have received from your God and Lord¹³, and do not hesitate or deviate from the teachings of your Supreme Shepherd¹⁴, that He will help you when you think you are most alone¹⁵.

It is the time of the Great Tribulation, of suffering and love, for your love will appear as it never has before. You will see how the love that is in your heart will flourish in these times of tribulation, it will increase and grow, because the demand of love will accompany you on your journey.

Do not be left out on My teachings¹⁶, meditate on them and believe in My Love and My Salvation.

Do not let go of My hand: remain in My love and in My Holy Heart and there the forces of evil will not reach you¹⁷.

In these times of pain, I, Jesus, come into your lives. In the name of the Lord, invoke My help¹⁸, and you will be saved in the adverse circumstances in which you find yourself.

Do not be scared, My dear children, of the tricks of evil, which will want to snatch you from My hand. Be strong and brave, and do not be afraid of the tricks of the infernal¹⁹ enemy; believe in My love and bear its challenges with peace and joy: the joy of knowing that you are safe in My Holy Heart. His darts poisoned by evil and pride that burns with the fire of hell in his heart will not reach you there.

I warn you, My dear children, listen to My words of love. In a time of perdition²⁰ I come to you to bring you My message of love.

Pray and meditate on My Words, faithful to the appointment because your Lord is faithful to your love and salvation. He who is Faithful calls you to be faithful in your life with Him. Be faithful, My children, to My Love and do not stray from your Savior.

The night is falling²¹, the night of the last times, shelter yourselves in My Holy Heart. If the rain rages, you are safe in Me. What god is so close to his creatures²²?

Children, in My hands and My feet are the marks of the nails that I endured and loved for your salvation; In My Heart is the imprint of the spear that it opened for you so that you could enter into It²³. I endured everything with love for your salvation²⁴, you too, as your Savior, bear the footprints of evil that hurts you because you are Mine, children, and seek your salvation and that of the souls that your Redeemer loves.

One day I will pay you your love and fidelity in the promised heaven²⁵, a heaven of love and happiness for all eternity.

Be faithful to My Message of love, and spread My Words so that the world be saved from evil.

It is not time to rest, but to fight with the weapons of Faith²⁶ and Love²⁷. Unite your forces, do not distance yourself from each other, because in your weakness the enemy of God will seek your evil and perdition. It is time for love, to love salvation and wish the good fight of love.

One day you will understand your sufferings and pains, and how they helped others when you live them in My Love²⁸, and under My Love and protection.

I love you children, have peace and patience; I love you in an Eternal Love, be faithful to My Love.

Goodbye, children, I wait for you in My sacrament of love²⁹ to give you all My Love and Salvation.

Come, children, come to take refuge in My Holy Heart³⁰.

The inclement weather will appear, do not be alarmed: it is the time of evil, this time has been given to test the hearts³¹, but do not fear, I am with you. Love must be tested and love needs to be tested; only in this way is the love of the cross experienced, the greatest³² love, the Only Love.»
