

MESSAGE 121 JUNE.1.2024

« I look at you and call you by your name¹; come, come to Me.

I love you and have chosen you in a choice of love, son, and you come running into My arms of love².

I wait for you and I love you and My eyes fill with tears when I see that you do not come, that you do not appear on the horizon and My eyes cloud up with sorrow as I wait when I see that You do not come. And what am I going to do? Pain consumes Me, My Wounds³ open with pain, My Blood⁴ is shed without ceasing, My Cross is raised on Calvary⁵ for you, My Mother⁶ does not stop crying for you, for your sins, Heaven waits in silence; nothing is the same without you, son. From all Eternity this is your place, next to Me, but you are not here. Your absence makes the stones cry out, the mountains shake and Heaven cries in torrents of tears that fall in the form of rain to Earth. It is pain, tragedy, the death of the unrepentant sinner, and Mercy is useless because it is not wanted. My arms lose you, My eyes see how you walk away. My Mother cries for My pain, the loss of My Blood on the Cross for you. And what shall I do? I can do nothing, I created⁷ you free⁸, I gave you the world under your feet⁹; I died for you, for your salvation¹⁰, but you do not love Me¹¹, you do not want Me, you do not wait for Me, you do not

¹ Is 43, 1

² Jer 2, 2

³ Jn 20, 24-27

⁴ 1Jn 1, 7; Col 1, 14

⁵ Lk 23, 33; Jn 19, 17-18

⁶ Lk 1, 30-31 . 43; Jn 19, 25

⁷ Gen 2, 7.15-25

⁸ Sir 15, 11-20

⁹ Gen 1, 26-29

¹⁰ Is 53; Rom 5, 6-11

¹¹ Dt 6, 5

want anything from Me; and what shall I do? Cry for you, for the pain of your loss.

It is the impotence of a God who lowers himself to His creature and is rejected, is not loved¹², His Love is lost. Souls lost in the horizon of My Love. Pleas of a God to His creature, rejected, by one who should love each one of the words that reach his heart from the One who loves¹³ him so much; but this is the tragedy, a battle lost for God, for Whom He gave¹⁴ everything; but you, son, I created you with freedom, your Creator tells you, and I can do nothing. In the legitimate use of your freedom, you turn away from Me¹⁵. You do not want My Salvation, nor My Love, and I must lose you on the same path that could have saved you for all Eternity.

It is the tragedy of God and man, it is the path of life that leads to salvation or perdition¹⁶, and for all Eternity.

The world has not known My Love¹⁷, it has not desired it, it has not lived it, and time will end, the time of salvation, with the death of the unrepentant¹⁸ sinner.

Now I address you, child of My Soul, at the door that will open to a new time full of difficulty, horror and slaughter of the people of God¹⁹, in a final time and I say to you: now is the time or there will be no more. When the hosts of evil invade the Earth²⁰, who will be left standing? These will be very difficult times for your conversion and nothing will be possible²¹. Now, now is the time or there will be no more. That is why today, now, I address you,

¹² Lk 17, 25; Jn 1, 11 ; 19, 15

¹³ Ps 119

¹⁴ Jn 3, 16; Rom 8, 32

¹⁵ Gen 3, 6; Mt 19, 20-22

¹⁶ Mt 25, 31s; 2 Cor 5, 10

¹⁷ Jn 1, 10

¹⁸ Lk 12, 13-21

¹⁹ Rev 13, 7 . 15

²⁰ Rev 9, 13 - 19

²¹ Rev 9, 20 -21

child of My Soul, and I say to you: come, come with your Savior²²; take refuge in My arms of love full of Mercy²³ and accept My forgiveness²⁴ in your repentant heart, pained by sin²⁵, and begin a new path in My Holy Heart that welcomes you with infinite Love and sweetness because It does not want the death of the sinner, but that he repent and live²⁶.

A fountain, the Fountain of Life²⁷, is open, soon it will be closed; that tap that is now open that gives way to a flow of life and blessing will be closed, because the time of darkness²⁸ is approaching to this world, where without God it will have to walk in solitude, orphanhood and darkness of soul. That is why I am calling you now, come and embrace Me, son, strengthen yourself for a time when the weak will succumb to the slightest breath of Satan. Come, come to Me now or there will be no more time.

It is not good the one who does not do evil, but he who does good²⁹. It is not good the one who allows without acting, but rather he who fights to change evil for good³⁰.

He is not saved who lets himself fall without acting, but he who fights with fierce battle against evil.

It is not lawful to love without responsibility and without decorum, obedience to the Holy Commandments³¹ and the Gospel³², but he who in blind obedience to the Love of God fulfills the Law of Moses³³.

²² Lk 2, 11 . 30; Tit 3, 4-6

²³ Ps 136; 2 Chr 30, 9; Heb 14-16

²⁴ Mic 7, 18-20; Mt 9, 1-8

²⁵ Ps 51; Bar 1, 15-21; 2 ; 3, 1-8

²⁶ Ezek 33, 11

²⁷ Jn 4, 10-14

²⁸ Lk 22, 53

²⁹ Ps 24, 3-4; Is 1, 17; Mic 6, 8; 1Tim 6, 11-16

³⁰ Rom 12, 21; Jas 4, 7

³¹ Dt 4, 1-39; Jn 14, 21; 1 Cor 7, 19; 2Jn 6

³² Mk 1, 14-15; Mk 16, 15-16

³³ Exod 20, 1s; Lk 16, 29-31

It is not a time to wish, but to fight for the object of the desire of the soul: Heaven³⁴. It is not enough to long for Heaven, we must do violence in the gut to get out of evil and sin, to leave a passive and conformist attitude and win Heaven with the love of the Creator³⁵, the Savior, guided and animated by the Spirit of God³⁶.

It is not time to do nothing, but to do and not stop.

How many good intentions, desires and longings buried in the reluctance to fight and internal violence!

How many destroyed, wrong roads, for not having the light of God of assiduous³⁷ prayer and freedom always at the feet of the Cross of Christ!

There is no time for more contemplations, the time of rigor demands an inner response to fight against evil that demands a disposition of the soul always submitted to the Will of God³⁸ and with the weapons of faith³⁹ always in combat.

The time of the easy road that rained conversion here and there is over; now nothing is easy because man has closed his ears to the voice of God, and in the world the silence of God rules and governs, the silence of all that is holy, the relaxation of the cross that has been loosened and thrown away and so, man runs and runs to his destruction.

It is time, the moment to tell you that in this time inclemency and discouragement will rain on all that is holy. If you are not strengthened, they will carry you ahead at the slightest breath of inclement weather, and I will lose you forever; because the soul, once it begins to close itself to the longing

³⁴ Phil 3, 7-16 . 20-21; Col 3, 1s; 1Pe 5, 4

³⁵ Mt 22, 37-38

³⁶ Rom 8, 14

³⁷ Col 4, 2

³⁸ Mt 7, 21; 1Pe 2, 15; 1 Jn 2, 17

³⁹ Eph 6, 10-18

for Eternity, then rejects it and even hates it. Souls that have hated the Salvation of the Son of God⁴⁰ lie unrepentant in the devouring fire of hell⁴¹, and hatred consumes them for an Eternity before the uproar of demons who only want the death of the sinner and to snatch the souls from the hand of Whom loves them so much and gave His life for them⁴². Harm to the Savior is the only desire of them, of the demons, fallen angels⁴³.

Don't think that everything is a bed of roses. If you do not do your part, they will deceive⁴⁴ you and take you down paths that lead to abandonment and lack of love for your cross⁴⁵, which is what leads you to My arms of Love for Eternity. Your cross is Mine, it is in Mine, and in it I redeemed you. Do not reject it by seeking easy paths⁴⁶ and in accordance with a world that has lost its God.

I give you this serious warning, children: do not grow cold on the path of Holiness⁴⁷ or you will be lost on a path that tries to distance you from Me; a path that wants to deceive you and relax your spiritual tension, necessary for the soldier who waits and it is in the battle. Until Heaven you will have to battle and fight, I had it and you follow My steps⁴⁸.

The cross is joy when it is lived in My arms.

I leave you children, with this serious warning of love. The path is narrow and even more it will. Be faithful⁴⁹ and cunning⁵⁰ and spot the enemy on your horizon to avoid his incendiary arrows. How? Always on your cross in My arms.

⁴⁰ Acts 7, 21; 1Pe 2, 15; 1 Jn 2, 17

⁴¹ Mt 25, 41

⁴² Jn 10, 11-18 . 15,13

⁴³ 2 Pe 2, 4

⁴⁴ 1 Tim 4, 1s; 2 Tim 3, 13; 2Pe 2; 2Jn 7-11

⁴⁵ Mt 16, 24

⁴⁶ Mt 16, 21-27

⁴⁷ Rev 2, 4-5 ; 3, 1-2 . 15-16

⁴⁸ Jn 15, 18-20; 2 Tim 3, 12; 1 Jn 2,6

⁴⁹ Mt 24, 45s

⁵⁰ Mt 10, 16

Do not stop looking at your path, the one that I gave you in My Love or: you will be lost.

A Light, a Light shines on the horizon of your life. Do not stop looking at it, do not extinguish the Light in your life, the Light of My Holy Spirit⁵¹ that has always shined on the holy path and is written in the Holy Book and in your souls.

There is only one Light⁵², do not look for the light of the candles that go out and stops illuminating. Seek the Light that never goes out: the Light of My Holy Spirit that is not in human reason and in the weakness of man that always appears on the path of life. The Light is in the soul in Grace, in the Light that dazzles in the path of the darkness of the soul, through a great Mercy of God that makes a visible flash for the sinner for his salvation.

But children, take advantage of the final moments when this is still possible, because the great darkness will reach the world and invade it. Amen. Amen.»

⁵¹ Jn 15, 26, 13-15; Eph 5, 8-14

⁵² Ps 27; Ps 36, 10; Jn 8, 12