
ANNOUNCEMENT RECEIVED BY ISABEL DE DIOS IN THE DAWN OF AUGUST 26, 2025

« Bells are ringing in Israel; the Son of God¹ is coming to Earth. He brings retribution on a wicked world that has not loved its God², and now it will have its last chance before the Great Tribulation³.

Bells are ringing in Israel, for the joy of a new birth, the birth of a prophet who came to Earth with a mission: to be God's defender. Now his mission begins, a mission to save souls for his Lord.

He is coming, he is here: And in remote times a prophet will come, sent by the Lord, who will bring retribution to a world that has not deserved peace. But the Lord, compassionate and merciful⁴, will bring salvation in a final rescue through a prophet who will come to Earth and speak on behalf of his Lord, and will perform wonders with the hand of God⁵ who will be with him. His name is written in Heaven, and to Earth it has already been revealed by the One who can do all things and who is in command of Heaven and Earth⁶, because He was received from the Father God through His Sacrifice on the Cross for the Salvation of all men⁷.

Now we will see him in the squares and streets speaking through the mouth of his Lord. In his hands he holds the Signs of the Love of God⁸, and in his flesh the Wounds of God's Love and the pains of His Passion. He will walk through the streets and squares, and he will travel the world in the arms of his Lord, who will go with him and in him.

Now the world is receiving the ultimate salvation of the Mercy of God, before darkness invades the world in a final rescue of salvation. It is here, it is coming, and soon will appear before you on behalf of God, and in it there will be a winnowing fork⁹, because it is God himself who will travel the world on his mission.

Now, children of men, begin to pray for him, because in him is your hope: She is a woman who won the Heart of God through suffering and pain, love and acceptance of a path forged by God¹⁰.

Through the mercy of God, the world is facing its final salvation. With the wounds of Christ, many will be healed¹¹ of their physical and spiritual ills and will find light in the midst of darkness. Amen, amen.

Children of men, you are warned, and My prophet announced before you through the mouth of Him Who appointed and chose him out of compassion to a world that has not deserved such love. But God loves His creatures to the extreme¹², and lavishes His Love on those who do not love Him¹³. Many who do not love Him will love Him when My Wounds will open the hearts of stone¹⁴, and may the Light of God pass thru them.

Through the mouth of My prophet I will speak to you and instill in you the Holy¹⁵ Fear of God, amen, amen, so that in the fear of God many may be saved and learn what love is.

He who does not listen to My words will listen to them when My prophet stands before him and speaks to him in My Name, and he will be brought to bear by the rigor of a turbulent time that has not merited so much salvation, but rather the oblivion of his Lord due to so much lack of love and cruelty among men, despite so many Messages and tribulations throughout history that the Lord has sent¹⁶ to sound the alarm of the perdition that was constantly stalking souls.

Now everything will be brought to light because it is the time of rigor.

Carry this Message in your hearts. Out of compassion for a world, I allowed myself to be won over by the love of a woman whose eyes never cease to look at me, and whose heart, devoted to God, never ceases to beat for the Good Lord, giving herself in a holocaust of love to win souls for God. Now she is in your hands, but carried by God and assisted by Him at all times with the rigor of Heaven, which sends her and cares for her and never ceases to look upon her. She is in your hands, but she is also in Mine.

Now is the time, or there will never be a time, for Salvation. Amen,
amen.»
