

MESSAGE 142 MARCH.1.2026

« There is no time left, time is running out and we must begin to pour out Love and Mercy into this world in abundance.

The time of Love has begun, the Love and Mercy of God to a world doomed to death and eternal damnation.

Therefore, my children, on this night of Love, I tell you: everything begins, it has already begun. My Word brings you the news of Love and Mercy, that the dew of Heaven¹ will be poured out upon this world. Amen, amen.

It is no longer time to keep doubting My Word. My Word is eternal and more stable than the sky². Whoever doubts will not have the benefits of Love because they will not want to place themselves under the torrent of Heaven that opens its floodgates and pours out its Justice and Salvation.

Heaven opens, children, on this night of Love Heaven opens and pours out all its Love upon this lost world. Whoever takes refuge in My Word will be immersed in this Love forever and ever; but whoever remains outside because of their unbelief, they have chosen their destiny.

Now is the time of Love, and you will see it in your streets and squares. The news of My Love will reach the whole world, and it will be embodied in a person like you, a sinner and poor, full of misery and also of love for her Creator³ and her God. I refer to her in this Message of Love because she will be the one in charge from Heaven who will bring you My Love. In My Wounds⁴, she will carry the proof for a world that is unbelieving and blind, that she is Mine and that I am sending her, your God and Lord.

Now I leave you with her, and she will visit you in your places and countries, bringing you My Love and My Word. You did not believe in her weakness, but now you will believe in her strength, the Strength of God within her. Her wounds will work the miracles you expect from Heaven, above all and most importantly, the conversion of hearts. This is the miracle this world awaits and so desperately needs. But she will also heal your illnesses according to faith and the plan of God for each one of you.

Now is a time of the celebration in this world because a prophet has been born to you with the power of God and the mission of God. I am in her, and she has paid for her sins and has become worthy of this grace of God through her perseverance and her love for God. Now I leave her with you, but I go in her and I am in her. Isabel of God is her name. Many of you already know her because I gave you her name long ago. I have introduced her to you time and again, and I speak of her again and again; but you do not heed me. Now you will, because the Lord will work wonders⁵ in her, and your eyes will see it, and you will speak of her, and her splendor will reach you, the splendor of Heaven that comes down to this world through the Mercy of God.

I bid you farewell in this Message with the desire in My Heart to see you obey and be faithful to your Lord⁶ in all that I have been telling you this time: to accompany her and love her, to be with her and have her in your midst, to believe that she is Mine. Now you will heed Me and obey Me because I will endow her with all that you need to see and more.

She is by My side, she is in Me, and she has a promise of Love that defends her from the evil one and makes her Mine forever and ever.

Obey everything she tells you on My behalf, for I am in her and speak through her. Her heart, surrendered to the Lord, makes her Mine for all eternity, and she will lead you to Me and give you of Me. My Holy Spirit guides and instructs⁷ her; He is with her, dwells in her, and immerses her in My Love again and again. My Blood has healed⁸ and clothed her as a new woman⁹, removed her stains, and dressed her in white¹⁰. her spirit is healed, her soul shines before Me, and I send her to you and say: she is Mine, take care of her, for she will give you what is Mine. She carries it within her; she carries within her the treasure of Heaven. Take care of her and heed her in what is of Me. She goes in My Name and will visit you in My Name. Nothing is hers, and she has nothing of her own. I stripped her of everything and clothed her anew.

Now I leave you with the gift of Heaven. She has been on the Cross and comes to you from the desert¹¹. She carries My Cross in her body and bears My Wounds and My sorrow for all the sins of the world. I took her from among you and made her Mine. She allowed herself to be molded by My hands¹² and allowed herself to be crucified out of love for God and for souls. I give her to you as the gift of Heaven.

Do not sadden me again with your disbelief and skepticism, because you will be left out of the stream of Love and Mercy that Heaven pours out on the just and the unjust¹³.

Now is the time. The gates of Heaven are open, my children, now is the time. Heed my words, do it for the love of a God who humbles himself to you time and time again, and is never satisfied with anything but taking you to Heaven for eternity.
